VOL. XXV BELLEFONTE, PA., THURSDAY MORNING, APRIL 5, 1894. NO 14

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Washington, April 2, 1894.
From Our Regular Correspondent.)

The republicans in the House have it in their power, if so disposed, to allow the House to pass the Bland bill over Mr Cleveland's veto, when the attempt is made this week by the silver men to do it. There is little probability that the republicans will do this, but the fact that they can do it is having such a disturbing effect upon the administration democrats that they are talking among themselves of fillbustering to prevent a vote when Mr. Bland makes his motion to pass the bill. over the veto. There are a few republicans who will vote for the motion anyway, and all that would be necessary for it to receive more than the necessary two-third vote would be for the other republicans to abstain from voting, as more than two-thirds of the democrats will vote for the motion. The out and out silver men are not, however, anxious to see the Bland bill passed over the veto. They prefer it to be out of the way, so that they will be free to try to pass a free coinage bill.

The democratic Senators privately admit that they are not confident of passing the tariff bill, and the wildest man no longer talks of passing it by the first of May. There is much gossip of an attempt being made to attach a free coinage amendment to the bill, but even if the attempt is to be made, which is not certain, it cannot be done until the bill reached the amendment stage, which is sometime off.

Democratic Senators positively refused to grant a hearing to a delegation of New England women mill-workers, who came to Washington to protest against the injustice of the tariff bill in dealing with matters in which the mill-workers are vitally interested, but they got a hearing —republican Senators gave it to them— and their objections to the bill will be stated to the Senate and to the country by republican Senators during the debate on the tariff bill, which opened to-day to programme.

Those democratic Congressmen who have been backing other applicants for position are as mad over the announcement that the "ex" rule is again to be violated, and Mr. Thomas E. Benedict, who was Public Printer under the first Cleveland administration, is to again have that office, as they have been all along because Hon Frank W. Palmer, admittedly one of the best Public Printers the country ever had, has not only been allowed to keep the office, but was actually begged to keep it until Mr. Cleveland got ready to select his democratic successor. One of the principal things remembered by republicans against Mr. Benedict's previous administration of the office is the large number of old soldiers who were dismissed by him.

The fight in the House to give the seat now held by Representative Joy, of Mo., to a democratic contestant who was not elected, which has been waged for more than a week without success, notwithstanding some very autocratic acts of Speaker Crisp, has brought out the fact that there are a score or more of democrats in the House who are too conscientious to take part in the theft of the seat merely to add one more to a democratic majority of ninety. But the act will doubtless be consummated this week, in spite of the protests of republicans and the non-voting of conscientious democrats, as the absentees are being arrested and brought in and a voting democratic quorum will probably be obtained.

It is just now a little puzzling to know why Secretary Carlisle should have considered it necessary to go to New York to assure the bankers of that city that Mr. Cleveland would make no concessions to the free silver men in Congress. Why wasn't the veto message considered assurance enough? Some of the silver men express the fear that the administration is making arrangements for another bond issue, similar to the last one. Be that as it will, it may be set down as reasonably certain that Congress will not follow Mr. Cleveland's recommendation by authorizing a bond issue.

Senator Vorhees was a little staggered the other day when confronted by the Democratic Governor of Indiana, and his staff, who had come to Washington to protest against the tariff bill as it now stands.

He couldn't turn them down, like he did the New England women, so they had a short but sharp word battle, the Senator and the Governor being the chief fighters. Governor Matthews, who is understood to be a candidate for Vorhees's seat in the Senate, told the Senator that the Indiana democrats demanded a restoration of the original free list of the Wilson bill. Vorhees denied it, and said that Matthews had been trying to work up democratic opposition to the bill, hoping to use it to advance his Senatorial aspirations. Matthews gave him to understand that the matter would figure in the Senatorial election.

THE BOROUGH FUNDS.

As will be seen in today's report of council meeting there is not a cent of money in the hands of the borough treasurer. Even the five thousand dollars, or more, in the Sinking Fund has all been borrowed and used up. Why this condition of things and what is to be done? seems to be the question of the hour. It is true—only too true—that there still remains about ten thousand dollars of uncollected taxes on duplicates of 1891, '92 and '93. It seemed to be the prevailing sentiment of the majority of the members of council to resort to strenuous measures and compel the collection of these taxes by collector S. D. Ray. Looking at this from the standpoint of the emptiness of the borough tereasury, it would seem that such a proceeding night be right—there is no question about its being legal. But then to force such a move at once would undoubtedly cause much misery and untold suffering.

It must be remembered that Mr. Ray has labored under great difficulty in the collection of taxes. The past three years have been years of closeness in the money market and it was almost an impossibility to get money. Of course, by the law of distress, Mr. Ray might have collected more than he has, but it would only have ended in throwing a lot of people on the borough for support and thus such a move was not wise. There is a possibility that times may improve some in the near future and, if they do, then all, or the most, of these back taxes can be collected up and the borough treasury again liberally supplied.

LUTHERAN CONVENTION.

A state convention of Lutherans is to be held in Harrisburg June 25 and 26 in the Bethlehem Lutheran tabernacle. Rev. W. H. Singley, of Harrisburg, addressed Lutheran meetings, in Philadelphia last week, where the question of holding a state convention of Pennsylvania Lutherans was discussed. Philadelphia Lutherans asked that it be held in the city of Brotherly Love. Dr. Singley put in a plea for Harrisburg, a vote was taken by ballot and Harrisburg won, getting all the votes but three. The dissenters moved to make it unanimous and it was so agreed.

This will be the delegated body on the basis of three delegates from each and every Lutheran society in the state, together with five delegates from each central association of Lutherans in the state. This will be the first and largest state convention of Lutherans ever held in Pennsylvania, and will bring from 1,200 to 1,500 delegates. Dr. Singley is chairman of the program and local committee. There will be all day and evening sessions.

SAM JONES' OPINION OF CONGRESS

St. Louis Post-Dispatch,]

Evangelist Sam Jones says of Congress: "Of all the box-ankled, bandy-shanked, flea-bitten, bob-tail, lop-eared, mangy, courageless brainless jackasses that ever assembled since God made the world I think for pure down right cussedness the present gang in Congress, headed by Hill in the Senate and tailed by 'no quorum' in the House, beats them all." Mr. Jones might have been a little more careful in his choice of language, but his expressions may be taken as public opinion in the rough.

For ten years Judge A. O. Furst has presided over the courts of Centre county with masterly ability and now, at the end of his first term, his friends have requested him to again be a candidate. He has consented and his announcement can be found in another column. If nominated by his party his triumphant election is assured. He has many friends among both of the leading parties and will, no doubt, receive many democratic votes from the class of men who place ability and faithfulness in office above mere party consideration.

—On Monday evening there was quite a gay party assembled at the residence of Mrs. Mary Hull, on Valentine street, to enjoy themselves at a social dance given by Miss Agnes Hull. All in all there were fifty-three guests present, most of whom were from Bellefonte but a few of whom were from Altoona, Tyrone and other places. The music for the dancing was furnished by Mr. Edward Kane. The young people had a most delightful time until an early hour in the morning. Choice refreshments were served during the night.

—Largest of all the residents of Bloomington, Ill, is a young man of 25 years and 452 pounds weight who is locally know as Baby Bliss. He wears a 19 1-2 collar, a 7 5-8 hat, and No. 12 shoes. He is renowned as one of the best waltzers in the town, and as a foot racer he knows few equals.

IN THE MATTER OF POTATOES.

Few farmers appreciate the immensity of the importance of foreign potatoes. In the year preceding 1890, when the duty was 15 cents a bushel, we imported annually 8,788,308 bushels of potatoes, valued at $4,656,308.

In 1890 the duty was raised to 25 cents a bushel.

This reduced the importations in 1891 to 5,401,912 bushels, valued at $2,797,927, and in 1892 to only 186,871 bushels valued at $186,006.

But the prices of agricultural produce in Europe have been so low during the past season, that the farmers there felt that they could afford to sell potatoes in this country in spite of the high duty, and the result is that between Oct. 1 and Feb. 10 there have been received at the port of New York alone, 215,965 sacks and barrels of potatoes, or three-eighths of all the supply of the city. In the week Feb. 10-17 three steamers alone brought to New York 37,000 sacks of English and Scotch potatoes. A little analysis will show how greedy the English and Scotch farmers are to sell in this market. A sack of English magnums weighing 168 pounds se lls in New York at $1.70, and has been sold as low as $1.50. The following has to be deducted from the selling price:

Duty, at 25 cents a bushel	.70
Freight, 20 cents per bag	.20
Commission, 12 cents per bag	.15
Freight to shipping port abroad	.10
Transfer to steamer, brockerage, etc	.10
Total	$1.25
Leaving for English farmers only	.25
Total	$1.50

This does not take into account the profits of the go-betweens who have bought the potatoes of the farmers.

"English and Scotch magnums" are advertised for sale by every grocer in Washington, and they probably find their way much farther West and South.

The report of the Statistician of the Agricultural Department gives the average production of potatoes in the United States for the 10 years preceding 1880 as 87.7 bushels per acre, and 76.3 bushels for the nine years from 1880 to 1888. In 1893 the yield was 72.2 bushels per acre.

If we assume an average production of 80 bushels to the acre, we will see that the importation of 8,788,308 bushels a year prior to 1890 took away from our own farmers the market for the product of more than 100,000 acres of the best farming land in the country, and it took away work, wages, and profits from at least a quarter of a million farmers, who would otherwise have been engaged in raising these staples for our home markets. Still worse, it fixed the prices at which the whole of the 2000,000,000, bushels raised in the country were sold.

The Wilson bill proposes to reduce the duty to 10 cents a bushel, which can hardly help doubling or trebling the importations, and keeping the price permanently at the lowest figure.

WHAT AN OFFICER.

The experience of Luzerne county with the newly created office of Controller must be quite gratifying to the taxpayers. Granting that it will cost $5,000 a year to meet the expenses of the office, the first month shows a saving of $6,000 alone to the county treasury under the new system. For January, 1893, the county's expenses were $11,000 and this year they were but $5,000. The vigorous and impartial editing by Controller Reese, in blue penciling illegal and exorbitant charges did this, and the saving for February is almost as large. It would have equaled the January record, but the victims of the Controller's rulings instituted litigation and that was costly. The wild wail of the old ringsters against the new office is in itself, however, the best proof of the value of the experiment. To cut down illegal revenues and reduce bills to a proper size would rouse any set of ringsters. It has done this in Luzerne. It will do it in Schuylkill. The County Controller is a man of great and growing possibilities. Wait until he gets hold in Berks and Lancaster.

The wild flowers have begun to bloom. They are appearing for sale in every city, they are gathered in every village and there is, besides, the systematic search for the rarer varieties by botanists and others. Year by year, this wholesale demand is sweeping our wild flowers away and probably not a single season passes in which some rare and beautiful species is not reduced to extinction. The great public waste of flowers will probably go on, in spite of all protest, like the feminine feather fashions which are dooming one wild bird after another to extinction; but the few who really care for flowers may be able by care to preserve the wild bloom a little longer around them, if they bear in mind how easily many wild plants can be destroyed by careless picking where the number is small and the habitants are few.

Ripans Tabules are always ready.

THE BOARD OF TRADE.

A Good Attendance—Business Transacted That May Prove Important.

At the last regular meeting of the Bellefonte Board of Trade the Secretary was instructed to send a postal card notice to every member of the next regular meeting. This was done accordingly and the card done its work, as there were present at the meeting Tuesday evening between thirty and forty members. It was just 8:20 o'clock when President James Harris called the meeting to order and Secretary Clement Dale, Esq., read the minutes of the previous meeting which were approved.

Under the head of written communications the Secretary read a letter recently received from A. A. Pletcher regarding a good bed of black pottery clay on his land near Mt. Eagle, which he thought it would be of interest and instruction to the Board to know. His communication was referred to the Manufacturers' committee.

At the last meeting the Secretary was instructed to extend an invitatiou to E. Thomas & Co., of the Petersburg crockery works, who are seeking a new location, to visit Bellefonte. Tuesday evening he read their reply which was in effect that they were not yet quite ready to make the desired change. However, they were pleased with the advantages of location offered by Bellefonte and would visit this place in a few weeks to see if arrangements could be made whereby their plant could be moved here. At the suggestion of Gen. Hastings President Harris appointed Gen. Hastings, Geo. L. Potter and Geo. T. Bush as a committee to visit Petersburg and see the Thomas Brothers, bring them here and show them what Bellefonte can offer them. This committee will likely make the visit either Thursday or Friday of this week.

Inquiry was made regarding what, if any, progress was being made with the Lamokin Car Works, about moving their plant from Chester to Bellefonte, and about the only information that could be gleaned on this subject was that the matter, though still under consideration, now lay apparently dormant. But General Beaver has an engagement with the company in Philadelphia this week, and it is probable on his return home something definite, either favorable or unfavorable, can be given.

The subject of the very incomplete railroad facilities from Bellefonte to Snow Shoe was brought before the Board for consideration and on motion it was decided to prepare a petition to Supt S. S. Blair, asking that the train on that road be changed so as to come from Snow Shoe to Bellefonte in the morning and return in the evening. The petition was prepared, signed by every member of the Board present and will be duly presented to Mr. Blair by Gen. Hastings, Geo. L. Potter and Geo. T. Bush, on the same day they make the trip to Petersburg.

Then the question which the DAILY NEWS has been agitating for some time, namely, a move to secure the Nittany Valley trade opened up by the completion of the new Central Railroad of Pennsylvania, for Bellefonte, was brought up for consideration. A committee was appointed to see the railroad officials and ascertain if they would be willing to give a special rate excursion on Saturdays, provided the merchants of Bellefonte, in concerted action, would extensively advertise through that locality and would make it a point to offer special inducements for Saturdays.

None of the standing committees had any reports to make except the Finance committee, which reported the addition of one new member since the last regular meeting, which now makes a total of ninety members.

The committee on printiug, etc., was instructed to procure the printing of the Constitution and By-Laws in pamphlet form as soon as possible. The Secretary was instructed to purchase and have printed one thousand postal cards of notification of meetings and to mail one to each and every member just prior to every regular or special meeting. The bill of E. T. Tuten for purchasing and printing 100 postal cards, $2.00, was approved and an order for the payment of same instructed to be drawn. On motion the Board adjourned.

WILL VISIT TIMBER LAND.

Dr. J. T. Rothrock, botanist member of the state forestry commission, is preparing his outfit and waiting for the opening of spring in order that he may take a fresh start into the timber lands of the state, where he will spend the coming summer in obtaining data for his report to the next legislature. He will first direct his attention toward the mountains of Pike and Wayne counties.

—The other day Mr. Isaac Haupt, while walking along West High street dropped from his pocket a letter which contained fifteen dollars. It was picked up by a little girl and given to a stranger standing near, and who, the child supposed, had just dropped it. The man opened the envelope and, on finding the money, immediately skipped out. The police were notified and have traced the party as far as Howard, where he was seen Tuesday but further trace cannot be obtained.

COUNTERFEITING SILVER COINS.

Nevada Steward may know all about silver but when he undertakes to instruct the Senate as to the law of counterfeiting silver coins he ought to quote the existing law and not a statute that has been repealed. There is said to be a private mint in Omaha turning out silver dollars of the light weight and fineness, but the secret service men have not been able yet to locate and seize it. Meantime the question has been raised whether in case the alleged counterfeiters are caught anything can be done with them. Ex-Senator Farwell asserts over his signature that there is no authority in the laws of the United States for punishing men who make full weight coins of the United States.

Senator Sherman asks that the Judiciary Committee of the Senate look into this question, but Senator Stewart would brush it all aside as an idle and useless inquiry. "There can be no doubt," he says, "that it is a criminal offense to make these silver dollars," and in proof he reads a section of the coinage act of 1873 which punishes with fine and imprisonment the making, passing or having in possession coins in similitude or resemblance of the gold or silver coins of the United States. This would clearly send the Omaha mint people to jail. It would also subject to prosecution and to a penalty of $5000 fine and ten years' imprisonment any one, however innocent and unoffending in intention, who should have in possession a medal which happened to resemble a coin or one of the gold half or quarter dollars which are made and sold by the jewelers as curiosities.

To relieve innocent persons from liability to prosecution under this law Congress, in 1877, modified it so as to make the making, passing or the possession of coins in the simllitude of United States money a criminal offense only when there is "an intent to defraud." Senator Stewart apparently was not aware of this modification of the act of '73 when he instructed the Senate that there was no need of Sherman's proposed investigation, nor did any Senator set him right. It is not credible that this private mint, if there be one, is not amenable to the criminal law of the United States, but the change in the counterfeiting act which, requiring that there must be an "intent to defraud" to constitute the crime, raises the question whether United States coins of full weight and fineness defraud or are intended to defraud anybody. They certainly defraud the United States of its seigniorage, and their authors, apparently come within the criminal law. The case is, however, not so entirely clear as Senator Stewart contends, nor is it made more luminous by his dogmatic citation of an obsolete provision of the law.

"PUT UP YOUR BOOKS."

The officials in the Register and Recorder's office have always been troubled with the carelessness of attorneys and others always leaving the books lay around in dire confusion, notwithstanding the repeated requests to put the same in their proper places. On Tuesday, however a large sign was put up at the top of which in large letters, is the command "Pup Up Your Books." Just below this is a skull and cross bones. In the lower left hand corner is a coffin, on the lid of which appears the words "For You." In the lower right-hand corner is a drawing of a crossed dagger and pistol. The sign is simply a pencil sketch and is the work of Mr. A. E. Seiple, agent for Wm G. Johnston & Co., stationers and blank book manufacturers, of Pittsburg, Pa. It is needless to say that, if the careless ones can take in the full meaning of the dismal-looking sign, there will be fewer books scattered around in such utter confusion in the future than there have been in the past.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Following is the list of marriage licenses granted by the register of Centre county during the past week:

William E. Spangler and Mirian Irene Palmer, both of Potter's Mills.

J. A. Finkbinder and Carrie Mechtly, both of Bellefonte.

Peter Devlin and Maggie Burns, both of Snow Shoe.

Thomas White and Amy Clark, both of Philipsburg.

Boyd Hunter, of Axe Mann, and Sallie C. Jackson, of Lemont.

John Spisah and Feketa Barbala, both of Munson.

Charles H. Meyer and Mary A. Boal, both of Center Hall.

TENDERED AN OVATION.

Coxey and His Gathering Reached Pittsburg Yesterday.

Pittsburg, April 3.—General Coxey's Pittsburg lieutenants were hustling about this morning, perfecting arrangements for this afternoon's reception of the commonweal soldiers. Honorary Marshal Burrows appointed J. H. stevenson marshal of the Pittsburg escort. At noon, without any demonstration, the local committee started for Wood Run, in the lower part of Allegheny City, where it was expected that Coxey's army would arrive at 2 o'clock. From the noon hour, throngs of people began to assemble in the streees in the lower part of Allegheny. By 2 o'clock the thoroughfares were simply packed. At that hour Chief Browne of the Allegheny public safety department, and Chief of Police Murphy informed Marshals Burrows and Stevenson that on account of the great throng and mainfest excitement, the army would not be permitted to enter Allegheny City via the Woods Run route. The chiefs directed that the marshals and escorts go to the New Brighton pike, over which it had been arranged for the army to enter the city. A great rush in the direction of the pike, several squares distant, followed.

Many of the houses and stores in lower Allegheny City were elaborately decorated in honor of the occasion. In the escort, which numbered almost 1,000 men, were 100 'cyclers on their wheels bearing banners marked "Coxey Brigade."

About 5,000 people met the army half a mile from the city limits and accompanied the marchers in. The army crossed the city line at 6:20 o'clock. The march from the city point to the camping ground on Smoky Island was continued as follows: Police escort, buggies containing Allegheny City police and other officials, the bicycle brigade, seven police officers, Browne, Coxey and Coxey's son, the newspaper correspondents in buggies, the Pittsburg escort numbering about 600 men. "Unknown" Smith, followed by the commonweal army, numbering about 300 men. The army reached their enclosed camping ground a few minutes after 3 o'clock and immediately began the erection of the camp outfit. The march through the city streets was an almost continuous ovation.

Public meetings will be held at Exposition park this afternoon on the Monongahela warf at 2 o'clock to-morrow and in Old City hall to-morrow evening.

The excitement aroused by the demonstrations over the advent of General Coxey and his dust-covered column of 300 men in Allegheny City, lasted far into the night Crowds flocked to Exposition park to get a sight of the strange army of peace and its now far-famed leader. After supper Coxey and Brown addressed a mass meeting of fully 9,000 people.

A collection taken during the evening netted a handsome sum of money to the commonweal. Tomorrow a parade march will be made through the streets of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, to be followed by a mass meeting on the Allegheny wharf, Pittsburg. In the evening the men in a body will attend a local theatre and another meeting will be held in Old City Hall at night. Recruiting Sergeant Ball states that twenty-four enlistments were recorded during the evening.

HANDSOME COSTUMES.

The costumes worn by the "Lillian Tucker" Company are said to be elegant. The aggregate cost is said to be over $5,000. They are certainly beautiful and will be worn by this company during their three night's engagement in this place They will open with one of their best productions, "A Woman's Revenge." Scale of prices will be 10, 20 and 30cts. This will enable all to see this clean company. They play our city three nights, then Clearfield three nights, then all one-night stands at high prices. Don't fail to secure a good reserved seat for 20 or 30 cents, according to location. Tickets now on sale at usual place. First night Monday, April 9th.

THE WAY IT OCCURRED.

The following is self-explanatory, and we publish it in justice to all parties.

Bellefonte, Pa., April 4th.

Editor News:—In vesterday's issue your paper stated that certain boys had a fight on their way home from school and that one hit the other with a stone. The parties named by the paper did quarrel, it seems, and the one struck the other as stated, but decided objection is made to coupling the affair with the schools since the one boy had not been to school that day at all, and the other was at home for the noon recess, and was on an errand for his mother at the time.

Yours respectfully,
Anna J. Stott.

—Lillian Russell, it is announced, will after next November be under the management of Abbey, Schoefiel & Grau.

COXEY'S ARMY GROWING.

Despite Continued Bad Weather New Recruits Come In.

Salem, O., March 28.—Camp Anna L. Diggs, the fourth night bivouac of the Coxey brigade was established on the Hampton circus lot, East Salem, at 2.30 this afternoon. Then entrance of the shivering clans of Coxey was a marked event in the history of Salem. When the army decamped from Alliance at 8 o'clock in the morning, curious crowds assembled along the roads to see the novel cavalcade. The roads were very rough and muddy and the trampling troops had a weary look. When nearing Salem, about thirty citizens of the commonweal who had gone ahead by freight train, joined the column. Just after the army had formed the customary circle, a penetrating wind carrying snow began to blow. Marshal Browne announced that the troop would be quartered in two halls secured by local sympathizers. Therefore, only the headquarters tent was raised. Supper was served at dusk, being eaten by the men around the blazing campfires in the open air.

At 7 o'clock the command was marshalled and proceeded to sleeping quarters. A few recruits were enlisted at this point. Acting Adjutant Kirkland stating the records showed twenty. Enough rations to do for one day were donated by sympathetic citizens. At 7.30 a public meeting was held in Howe's hall. It was crowded by 1,200 people who applauded Marshal Browne frequently.

General order No. 6, issued before the meeting, announced that Camp Trenton will be established at Columbiana to-morrow. A rousing reception is expected at Columbiana, as it is a strongly favorable community. Commander C [illegible] join them there. Frank R. Mills, representative of the United Trades council, of Beaver Falls, Pa., is making arrangements for an enthusiastic reception. A local paper of East Liverpool, O., a pottery town, announces that 600 men will leave there Sunday morning to join the commonweal at Beaver Falls, Pa. The men are striking potters.

The army approximately numbers 175 this evening and is gradually increasing. No complaints of depredation other than begging have been made along the route.

THE UNEXPECTED HAPPENED.

Washington, March 28.—It was the unexpected that happened in executive session this afternoon. The general impression was when the meeting of the committee on foreign relations adjourned shortly after noon, that no action had been agreed upon in relation to the Chinese treaty. Nevertheless, when the senate subsequently met in executive session the treaty was favorably reported to the senate without amendment and went to the executive calendar.

Mr. Dolph, of Oregon, was the only member of the committee opposed to the terms of the treaty, but considerable antagonism will be found among senators not on the committee. Final action will not be speedily as numerous amendments will be offered, the Pacific coast senators being determined to secure, if possible, the debtor clause in regard to merchants.

GRAVESEND SENTENCES.

New York, March 28.—The 16 Gravesend Democratic election inspectors who pleaded guilty to a charge of conspiracy, were sentenced yesterday.

Seven of them were given 29 days in jail Three, who withdrew their plea in the contempt proceeding and pleaded guilty, were each fined $500.

Three others were given three months in the penitentiary. Michael P. Ryan was given six months in the penitentiary and fined $500. William Lyons was given four months and Conrad Steuborn, Jr., three months in the penitentiary. Frederick E. Bader was given five months in the penitentiary and fined $500. Benjamin Cohen was given four months in the penitentiary and fined $500. Victor Bausenwein was given four months in the penitentiary.

ANOTHER REPREIVE.

Chicago, March 28.—Patrick Eugene Prendergast will not be hanged April 6, the date to which Judge Chetlain postponed the execution. This was definitely settled during the proceedings yesterday, although the judge refused to grant a further stay at this time. The sanity hearing was continued until April 5 at 2 p. m., at which time Judge Chetlain says he will take such action as may be necessary. As it will be manifestly impossible to complete the trial by the time set for the execution, both sides agree that a further stay will then be granted, but it is understood that this will not be opposed by the state's attorney.

DISCRIMINATION.

Philadelphia, March 28.—Judge Acheson, of the United States circuit court, has refused to dismiss the writ of alternative mandamus secured by R. B. Wigton & Son, who charged that the Pennsylvania Railroad company discriminated in rates for the carrying of bituminous coal in favor of other producers. The judge holds that the law on the case clearly authorizes the issue of a writ of mandamus on the relation of any person charging violation of that law.

EARLY CROPS DESTROYED.

Memphis, Tenn., March 28.—The fruit and early vegetable crops in the southern states have been completely destroyed. Not a sign of vegetation remains to tell of the ravages of the cold wave. To add to the woe of the farmers, another blizzard struck this section this evening and tonight a blinding sleet storm is prevailing. The storm is accompanied by a hign gale, which drives the fine particles of ice before it like so many needles. The telegraph wires are prostrated and reports from the surrounding territory are slow coming in, but every day dispatches bring tales of distress and loss.

GRAINS OF GOLD.

The noblest mind the best contentment has.

MURDERERS DISCHARGED.

Gettysburg, March 28.—Judge McClean today discharged from prison on a writ of habeas corpus Amos Carbaugh and Philip Wagaman, who were charged with having killed Jacob W. Wagaman in the South Mountains last June. They were arrested on the testimony of Alfred Wagaman, who is now in jail as an accessory. Yesterday Alfred swore to the court that his original story, that Carbaugh had choked Wagaman to death, while Philip looked on, was true. This morning he went on the stand and confessed that he had perjured himself and that he had been induced to do it by some of his neighbors.

TO BE PROSECUTED.

New York, March 28.—The Board of Health this afternoon decided that the explanation made by Rev. John R. Paxton, regarding his failure to record within the required time the secret marriage of Colonel Breckinridge and Mrs. Wing, was unsatisfactory. The attorney of the department was instructed to bring suit against Dr. Paxton. Suit cannot be brought until Dr. Paxton, who is now in Pittsburg, comes within the jurisdiction of the New York courts.

JIM JOHNSON AND LEHIGH.

Philadelphia, March 30.—The financial News Reporting Agency to-day states that a movement is on foot among certain stockholders of the Lehigh Valley Railroad Company to defeat the present management at the next annual election, and that their candidate for President will be Congressman Tom Johnson, of Ohio. In financial circles there is a disposition not to treat the movement as serious.

It is reported that those back of the project will issue a circular addressed to the stockholders asking for proxies to be voted at the next annual meeting, and setting forth their reasons for opposing the present management.

Excess of grief for the dead is madness; for it is an injury to the living, and the dead knows it not.

Repentance without restitution is like an old stopper shoved into a bottle. It stops on the wrong side.

AN UNSEEN ENEMY

Is more to be dreaded than an open and visible one. The subtle and lurking foe, which under the generic name of malaria manifests itself, when it clutches us in its tenacious grasp, in the various form of chills and fever, billious remittent, dumb ague or ague-cake, can only be effectually guarded against by fortifying the system against its insiduous attacks with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a thorough anidote to the poison of miasma in the system, and a safeguard against it thoroughly to be relied upon. In the event of a malarious attack, avoid poisoning your system with quinine, and use instead this wholesome remedy, unobjectionable in taste and far more efficacious than any drug. Use the Bitters for dyspepsia, billiousness, constipation, kidney complaints and rheumatism.

AN INTERESTING DAY.

Colonel Breckinridge's Defense Against Miss Pollard's Charges.

Washington, March, 28.—Colonel Breckinridge will take the stand tomorrow unless the unforseen should happen, to testify in his own behalf against the accusations of Madeline V. Pollard. To-day several witnesses for the defense were examined and nearly all the remaining depositions were read, leaving only a few of the latter to be disposed. When the reading of the depositions is concluded, Colonel Breckinridge, his attorneys say, will take the stand and they are confident that he will make a good impression.

The testimony introduced by the defense to-day was sensational. Part of it was very vulgar, even indecent in the language used by the deponents. Two men, whose depositions were read, deposed that they had met Madeline Pollard in a house of ill-fame in Lexington a year before Colonel Breckinridge became acquainted with her, and that she was known as "Jim Rodes's girl." Both said that the alleged Miss Pollard conducted herself like any woman of the town, although they did not use that term to express themselves. One of these men is a butcher, the other a janitor. Rankin Rosell, the young man to whom Miss Pollard was engaged while at Wesleyan college during the period of her illict relations with Colonel Breckinridge and while the contract to marry or pay back old man Rodes was in existence, was placed on the witness stand and testified that he had held Miss Pollard on his lap for hours at a time in the parlor and the library of the college after they became engaged, and she asked him to take her to Chicago with him, and she actually packed her trunk for that purpose. Altogether it was a very interesting day.

A correspondent is guilty of being the originator of the following joke; "Many people would not have kissed the Blarney stone at the World's Fair if they had known it was merely a shamrock."

—A. G. Morris, the lime stone operator, is opening a quarry in the vicinity of Coleville, and the foundations are being laid for three large ovens. This will give additional employment for laboring men. The lime stone operations about Bellefonte give employment to several hundred work men and they are in constant operation.

—Linn & McCoys are preparing to put their ore banks at Hublersburg and their charcoal furnace at Milesburg in operation in the near future.

A NOBLE GIFT

PLACED IN A DAUGHTER'S HANDS

In Order That a Life's Work May Be Perpetuated.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.]

It was an eventful day.

One of the noblest women of the age felt the weight of years upon her. Her whole life had been given to one grand work, and her name was known throughout the civilized world. Before her was a younger woman, and they were seated in the great "record room," where were stored many women's stories of sorrow and joy.

Letters by the thousands, together with great books of record, containing the important points of advice and treatment in special cases, were all about them.

The elder woman turned over the leaves and read:—

"I was sorely afflicted with chronic inflammation of the womb . . . . I am now well."

Turning over another page she read:—

"They said I was consumptive, and sent me awry . . . . But you opened my eyes to the truth, and through you I am well."

Another page and:—

". . . Your remedy came to me with hope, then the truth dawned upon me. You saved my life, and I bless you continually."

Then the book was closed and placed in the hands of the younger woman.

"These are the records of my victories over the peculiar diseases of women. They give the history of each case, and how it was treated.

"I am growing old. Some day I must give up the effort, and I bequeath to you my life work for the physical salvation of women. Carry it forward that all may be cured."

The elder woman was Lydia E. Pinkham. The younger was her daughter, Mrs. Charles H. Pinkham, the one woman fully equipped to carry out the requirements of this noble legacy, not only by natural endowments, but from her knowledge through constant study and years of experience in assisting her mother in her voluminous correspondence and personal treatment of woman's diseases.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will redeem women from the fearful consequences of all diseases of the womb. All druggists have it for you.

TOBACCO HABIT EASILY CURED.

A FEW Testimonials from persons who have been cured by the use of Hill's Tablets.

The Ohio Chemical Co.:

Dear Sir:—I have been using your cure for tobacco habit, and found it would do what you claim for it. I used ten cents worth of the strongest chewing tobacco a day, and from one to five cigars; or I would smoke from ten to forty pipes of tobacco. Have chewed and smoked for twenty-five years, and two packages of your Tablets cured me so I have no desire for it.

—W. Fisk Conrad, of Tyrone, has appointed Edward T. Watt as his assistant postmaster. The Herald says the selection is a good one.

—Tyrone wants the free mail delivery system and, as the postoffice receipts have reached the required amount, she ought to have it, too.

—Mr. William P. Fisher, proprietor of the Bald Eagle nurseries at Unionville, reports the peaches badly damaged by the cold weather but thinks the apples were not far enough advanced to be hurt.

—On last Monday Miss Mattie I. Luse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Luse, of Millheim, was united in marriage to Mr. William E. Beard, of Sparrow's Point, Md., Rev. C. C. Miller, of the U. B. church, performing the ceremony.

—A county school teacher asked a class the other day the difference between country sausage and town sausages. One little fellow gave his opinion and he is about right: "Town sausage is made out of cats and dogs, while country sausage is made out of beef and pork."

—Why can't Bellefonte have a decent lockup? What is wrong with putting a building over on the island in Spring creek, building a wall around it and planting roses and flowers in the enclosure? This would make a sort of an Eden on "Blackwell's" Island, or some other island.

—On Friday Fred Parks, the four year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Parks was kicked in the face by a horse and seriously hurt. His face was so badly cut that it required seven stitches to sew up the wounds. The accident occurred while the boy and his brother were whipping the steed.

—For several days past workmen have been busily engaged putting a new covering of linoleum on the floor of the prothonotary's office and now, that the work is about completed, it presents a very handsome and durable appearance. The next office to be refitted throughout will be the Register and Recorder's office and this will be done inside of a month.

—On Thursday Prothonotary William F. Smith and family moved to Bellefonte, locating in the house on Bishop street recently vacated by ex-register John A. Rupp. Ex-deputy sheriff George B. Crawford also moved his family here from Millheim, locating in the rooms above his billiard parlors on Bishop street. Both families will make desirable acquisitions to Bellefonte.

—E. P. Gates Wednesday moved from one farm at Centre Line to another at Huntingdon Furnace and his flitting was not unlike the procession of an army wagon train. It consisted of 4 four horse wagons, 15 two-horse heavy wagons, 3 two-horse spring wagons and a buggy all of them completely loaded with household goods and farm supplies. Even with this tremendous exhibit Mr. Gates was obliged to return to-day with 2 two-horse wagons to complete the removal of all his goods.

—Onions are a kind of all-round good medicine, and every housewife knows this without knowing why. She knows that a solid red onion eaten at bedtime will by the next morning break the severest cold. She also knows that onions make a good plaster to remove inflammation and hoarseness. But she does not know why. If anyone would take an onion and mash it so as to secure all the juice in it, he would have a most remarkable smelling substance that would quiet the most nervous person. The strength of it inhaled for a few moments will dull the sense of smell and weaken the nerves until sleep is produced from sheer exhaustion. It all comes from one property possessed by the onion, and that is a form of opium.

A NARROW ESCAPE!

How it Happened.

The following remarkable event in a lady's life will interest the reader: "For a long time I had a terrible pain at my heart, which fluttered almost incessantly. I had no appetite and could not sleep. I would be compelled to sit up in bed and belch gas from my stomach until I thought every minute would be my last. There was a feeling of oppression about my heart, and I was afraid to draw a full breath. I couldn't sweep a room without sitting down and resting; but, thank God, by the help of New Heart Cure all that is past and I feel like another woman. Before using the New Heart Cure I had taken different so-called remedies and been treated by doctors without any benefit until I was both discouraged and disgusted. My husband bought me a bottle of Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, and am happy to say I never regretted it, as I now have a splendid appetite and sleep well. I weighed 125 pounds when I began taking the remedy, and now I weigh 150½. Its effect in my case has been truly marvelous. It far surpasses any other medicine I have ever taken or any benefit I ever received from physicians."—Mrs. Harry Starr, Pottsville, Pa., October 12, 1892.

Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure is sold on a positive guarantee by all druggists, or by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, six bottles $5, express prepaid. This great discovery by an eminent specialist in heart disease, contains neither opiates nor dangerous drugs.

FOR VILLAGE IMPROVEMENTS.

The Town Meeting Decided to Observe Friday, April 13th as Arbor Day.

In accordance with the call of the Town Council for a Town meeting in the court house on Thursday evening quite a large crowd assembled at that place. That is, a large crowd, including the boys, of which there was a larger number than grown people. The meeting was called to order by Burgess Wm. E. Gray who stated the purpose of the call and holding of the meeting, which was to take preliminary action regarding the proper observance of Arbor Day. Mr. Gray nominated for President of the meeting Gen. James A. Beaver, who was unanimously elected.

Gen. Beaver on taking the chair, and for the full instruction of all, read the Governor's proclamation appointing the Arbor days, namely, April 13th and 27th. Gen. Beaver stated that the general observance of the day had not found the response desired. The purpose of the meeting this evening is to try and interest everybody in Bellefonte to take part and assist in helping to observe arbor day in a fitting manner. Let us select one of the days named as the day we will observe and then observe it. Gen. Beaver stated that he knew most every town of any size in the state and he did not know of one that was so ragged and unkempt in appearance as Bellefonte. Just why this is he could not tell, unless it was that we were so wrapped up in ourselves as to give no thought to the public good and welfare. In this connection the general quoted Northrop's saying as illustrative of what makes a happy community, namely "all for one, and one for all." In Bellefonte we seem to be "all for one" and that one ourself. Mr. Beaver thought that by a general co-operation the people of Bellefonte should be able to plant fully one thousand trees on that day. He advocated making a half-holiday on Labor day and everybody lay aside all other work and do nothing else but plant trees and vines and shrubberies and flowers. What a change could be made in the whole town in that one half day. Mr. Beaver further stated that the ladies were ahead of the men in this respect, as they had been discussing this move for months past, and that if the men did not take proper hold of the project the ladies would.

At the conclusion of General Beaver's remarks the meeting was further organized by the election of a secretary. The President then introduced as the first speaker of the evening D. F. Fortney, Esq., President of the Bellefonte school board. Mr. Fortney has frequently been termed a "crank" on school and improvement subjects but he is certainly the right kind of a "crank." His ideas are broad, intelligent and to the point. He depreciated very much the fact that our town was left in the condition it always is. If it was not for the natural advantages of location. Bellefonte streets would certainly present a very unsightly appearance. Mr. Fortney stated that it was the intention of the school board to fix up the yard surrounding the stone school house, and they expected to have it completed inside of two months. Mr. Fortney spoke in regard to the kind of tree that should be planted. He advised planting the sugar maple in preference to the silver maple, but his preference of all was the elm. Mr. Fortney advised the planting of a row of elms on both sides of Wilson street, along its entire length. If this were done, it would, in a very few years, make one of the most beautiful thoroughfares in Bellefonte. The speaker further advised, for a matter of beauty, the removal of all fences along streets, and between properties, for that matter. At the conclusion of Mr. Fortney's remarks he moved that Friday, the 13th day of April, be selected as the one to be observed by the people of Bellefonte as Arbor day. The motion prevailed.

Judge Furst was the next speaker of the evening. His Honor started out with humorous allusion to the absence of any kind of a tree on Gen. Beaver's lot. He then condemned the borough lockup and hoped someone would carry it away. In his remarks on the kind of a tree to plant, he advised against planting peach trees, as they were too great a temptation to the boys; but he did think the walnut or hickory nut trees would be a good variety; they would not only afford a pleasant shade but be a good as well. Judge Furst, in concluding his speech, moved that everybody in the house, so far as possible, plant a tree on the 13th day of April. The motion was put to a standing vote, but out of probably 250 present only about forty arose.

Gen. Beaver stated, in answer to Judge Furst's jocose remark, that he was not a candidate for Congress nor did he expect to be. That he was only a member of the town council of Bellefonte, and desired no office higher than that. The President then called on John G. Love, Esq., for an address.

Mr. Love deprecated the fact that in years past it was the lesson taught the young to destroy forests rather than foster the same, and he was glad to see that at last the people everywhere were awakening to a realization of the importance of a more faithful and proper observance of Arbor day in the planting of trees. It is necessary, not alone for beauty and ornamentation, but for the health, wealth and prosperity of future generations.

At the conclusion of Mr. Love's remarks it was moved and so ordered that the committee of the town council known as the Village Improvement Committee, and consisting of Gen. James A. Beaver, Al. S. Garman and C. T. Gerberich, be the properly constituted parties to order all trees required for planting on that day. Therefore, all persons desiring trees, are requested to send in their orders as soon as possible to any one of the above named gentlemen.

Mr. George L. Potter, moved the organization of a Village Improvement Society. Carried. Mr. Fortney moved the appointment of a committee of ten, who shall arrange for a public meeting on the 13th of April for the organization of a Village Improvement Society. The chairman held the appointment of the committee under consideration until today.

Mr. Fortney then again suggested as the most suitable trees for street planting, either the sugar maple, the sycamore or the Norwegian maple, the elm or the horse chestnut. On motion of Judge Furst the meeting adjourned.

CHERRY TREE MONUMENT.

Patriot: A design for the monument to mark the spot at Canoe Place, one of the point on the boundary of the purchase of Governor Penn for the Indians, for which an appropriation of $1,500 was made by the last legislature, was approved yesterday at a meeting of the board of public buildings and grounds on condition that the party furnishing it allow bids for its erection. The monument will be erected in the bed of a small stream at the intersection of Indiana, Clearfield and Cambria counties known as Cherry Tree. The shaft will be of granite, thirty-three feet high, with a capstone of the same material. There will be carved on the shaft a representation of a canoe, the names of the three countries and a suitable inscription. The base will be of sandstone and will rise eight feet above the level of the stream. The cost of constructing the foundation will be paid by contributions from citizens of Indiana and contiguous counties.

WHAT IS LEGAL MONEY.

Money is simply a measure of value to facilitate the exchange of commodities. It is not necessary that the measure of value should be intrinsically worth as much as the commodity transferred no more than a bushel measure should be worth intrinsically as much as a bushel of wheat.

When an able financier tells you that a silver dollar is only worth fifty cents, just tell him you will give him ninety cents in gold for every silver dollar he will sell you and see how soon he will change the subject of conversation and commence talking of Great Britain's finances, for it is a universal fact in this nation that you can purchase as many goods for a United States minted silver dollar as you can for a minted gold dollar. It is the sovereignty of the nation imprinted on the coin that makes it current money, not the intrinsic value of the coin, as would be great financiers would make the ignorant believe.

THE FISH LAWS.

Open season for fish in the state of Pennsylvania: Speckled trout, April 15 to July 15; black bass, rock bass, wall-eyed pike, May 31 to January 1; lake trout, January 1 to October 1; pike and pickerel, June 1 to December 1. German carp, September 1 to May 1. No person shall cast, draw, fasten or otherwise make use of any sein, drift-net, fyke-net or nets of any other description, or use any other appliance for the catching of fish, except rod, hook and line, in any rivers, streams, or waters of this Commonwealth. The penalty for violating this provision is one hundred dollars, cost of suit and forfeiture of boats, nets and all appliances.

AN UNCLE OF COXEYS.

Mr. Coxey, of Boalsburg, is a genuine uncle of General Coxey, of Ohio, and a good, jolly fellow. Uncle Coxey runs a stage from Boalsburg to Oak Hall, while General Coxey is running an army of tramps from Massillon to Washington. Uncle Coxey thinks nephew Coxey is a crank, and he is about level right there.

In this connection we might just add that a gentleman living near Centre Hall, one day recently, sent Coxey a check on the Potters Bank for one thousand dollars to help defray the expenses of his trip. It will be a long time before Coxey gets that check cashed.

STONE QUARRIES RUSHED.

The lime stone quarries, opposite Salona, controlled by A. G. Morris, now employ about forty hands. Eight cars of crushed stone and three cars screenings are shipped daily from the quarries. As the quarries have a large order to fill—one that will keep them busy all summer—between twenty-five and thirty more hands will be added to the force so as to increase the daily shipment to fifteen cars. The stone are being used by the Beech Creek railroad company.

Yesterday a telephone was placed in the office of Mr. Morris at the quarries.

ROBBERY AT BEECH CREEK.

A few nights ago at Beech Creek burglars broke into Mr. Smith's jewelry store and stole therefrom jewelry amounting to about $200. The thieves stole tools from Keyes' carpenter shop, with which they pried open the front door of the jewelry store. Fortunately Mr. Smith had taken a number of the most valuable watches home with him, else his loss would have been greater. It is supposed that the thieves were two tramps who had been loitering around the town for a few days prior to the robbery.

—Rev. M. L. Gance will deliver the memorial address in Tyrone on Decoration day this year.

THE LATE A. G. EWING.

A Brief Sketch of A Life Well Spent.

The subject of this brief sketch, who died at Baileyville, Pa., last Friday morning, March 23, 1894, was born and lived his whole life in the beautiful valley of Spruce Creek.

He was about 67 years old. His was a life of rugged toil. His ceaseless energy and indomitable will bore rich fruit in his life. He taught in the common schools about twenty years. Afterwards he engaged in the mercantile business, in which he continued up to the close of his life. He embarked in this line of business first at Franklinville, Pa. Later he, with his son W. G., opened up a store at Mt. Union, Pa., where they did a thriving business. He, however, sold his store at Franklinville. He was an honest man, diligent in business, fervent in spirit, serving the Lord. Intellectually and morally, he was taller by far than any of his fellows. His mental acumen was very great, even brilliant. He took a great interest in the education of the youth around him. He served as school director a number of terms, giving his past service, for he was a man of remarkable powers of observation, of good judgment and splendid tact, which he used conscientiously for the benefit of schools and teachers. His life ever stood for good morals and faithfulness. He was a most devoted, humble Christian—a member of the Graysville Presbyterian church for years. He served as Sunday school superintendent for many years, without ostentation, humbly and acceptably, as unto the Lord. His habit was to attend upon divine services regularly. The Bible was the greatest of all books to him. Being a man of great courage, he wes ready through divine grace to make sacrifices and do hard things for his Master in heaven, whom he served with awe and reverence. In this atmosphere he lived, in this atmosphere his life of love and service went out, peacefully, hopefully, trusting divine grace for uttermost salvation. Gone to rest. The many weak ones whom he has helped will ever cherish sweet memories of him. The world has been made better for 'Squire Ewing having lived in it.

He had three living children—W. G., of Mt. Union; J. R., of Portland, Ore., and Miss Annie, who ministered so faithfull and lovingly to her father.

Rev. Oliver and Rev. D. H. Campbell assisted Rev. Armentrout, his pastor, in the solemn and appropriate service. Interment in Graysville cemetery.

THE WALL FELL ON HIM.

About eleven o'clock this forenoon some of the old wall of the foundation of the Central House fell on Bernard Gallagher, one of the workmen digging out the foundation. At first it was thought the unfortunate man had been fatally injured, if not killed, but on taking him out from under the mass of stone it was found that no bones were broken though Mr. Gallagher was pretty badly bruised up. There were also a number of cuts on his face, but it is not thought his condition is serious.

SCARCITY OF WATER.

The farmers throughout the valley who depend on cisterns for their water supply, report a growing scarcity in that supply. It is given as a reason for the scarcity that, though much snow fell during the winter, it was blown almost immediately from the roofs of the houses and the barns, leaving little to melt and run into the cisterns. The farmers are now solicitous for plentiful rains to supply the deficiency.

BELLEFONTE IN GOOD CONDITION.

There has been a very large number of changes of residence in Bellefonte during the last half week and will be continued today and tomorrow. Also quite a goodly number of changes in store room and business locations.

Taking it all in all this borough is in fully as good financial shape as any place of its size in Pennsylvania today.

DEATH OF A CENTENARIAN.

Allentown, March 30.—William Sweeney died at Catasauqua this morning, aged 107 years. He was born in County Kerry, Ireland, Nov. 2, 1876. He was the father of fifteen children. His father lived to be 119.

IN SOUTH CAROLINA.

The Governor Believes the Worst of the Trouble is Over.

Columbus, S. C., April 1.—South Carolina is apparently in the throes of a rebellion. Governor Tillman, in consequence of the resistance to his state constables at Darlington, has declared the counties of Darlington and Florence in insurrection, has taken practical possession of the railroads and telegraph lines, and is endeavoring, under some disadvantages, to assemble a military force of sufficient strength to enforce his mandates. Some of the country companies are responding to the governor's summons, but the Fourth brigade, at Charleston, the most formidable body of troops in the state has disbanded rather than obey the governor's orders to repair to Darlington.

A number of the constables are surrounded in a swamp at Syracuse and are certain to be captured. Two others surrended. It is believed that all who are captured will be killed, and there are strong threats that McLendon, who was wounded in the fight yesterday, would be lynched. The situation is most grave and the state of the public mind is indescribable.

At no time in the history of this state for the last thirty years has there been so great estrangement between the people.

The governor has, by proclamation, declared Darlington and Florence counties in a state of insurrection. He has also ordered the railroad authorities not to transport any bodies of men unless authorized by him. The railroads have thus far refused compliance. The governor has also ordered the telegraph companies not to transact any news of a war-like tendency. This order was likewise refused, and Judge Watts, on request of the governor, issued an injunction against the Western Union Telegraph company, Manager Gray, restraining him from accepting messages for transmittal on the Darlington trouble, unless sent by state authorities. The injunction was served at 7 o'clock last night, but the Western Union manager is receiving everything offered him for transmission, regardless of Judge Watt's injunction. He is acting under instructions of his superior officers, and will accept everything offered as long as he remains in control of his office.

The city and state dispensaries were closed yesterday by order of the governor, and their contents are being hauled to the penitentiary for safe keeping.

FROM DARLINGTON.

Darlington, S. C., April 1.—Last night Mayor Dargan sent telegrams to heads of all posses in pursuit of the fleeing constables to come back to town as they were needed. This, it is known, would bring all the men back and by this morning all the constables were free to go as they pleased. It is learned that they were taken away in a wagon by friends during the night. Constable McLendon, who was supposed to have been mortally wounded and who was not lynched on that account, was taken out of jail last night by friends. Constable Cain has gone to a private house and received attention. He says that on the night of the pursuit he was in a ditch covered up with straw. A committee from Florence arrived here this morning to tender service in case they were needed by the citizens here. After a discussion of the matter it was decided to thank Florence for the offer, but that it was not necessary to have any troops come here. While here the committee from Florence announced that a letter would be sent Governor Tillman advising him that the dispensary at that place could not again be opened and that the constables would not be tolerated there. The people of Darlington are determined that no destruction to state property shall be permitted here, and last night when an effort was made to loot the dispensary it was promptly resisted. During the morning an effort was made to organize the citizens to resist the country volunteers that Governor Tillman has called for. Mayor Dargan and other prominent citizens addressed the men and advised them not to make any demonstration but to remain perfectly quiet, as the understanding was that Governor Tillman, upon the advice of General Farley, would do nothing to excite the people here, and that the military would under no circumstances be allowed to come here. General Farley was of the opinion that there was absolutely no occasion for the bringing of the militia.

The people here did not at all like the idea of having the Western Union telegraph office put under censorship of Columbia on their account. With all of the posse back in the city, all of the constables out of the county, and the people bent upon keeping the peace, comes the news that 900 troops from Columbia have started on their way here.

At this hour, 6 p. m., efforts are being made to have the troops returned to Columbia on the ground that their presence can do no possible good.

THE PROOF OF THE PUDDING.

Have you humors, causing blotches?
Does your blood run thick and sluggish?
Are you drowsy, dull and languid?
Is a bad taste in your mouth, and
Is your tongue all furred and coated?
Is your sleep with bad dreams broken?
Do you feel downhearted, dismal,
Dreading something, what, you know not?
Then be very sure you're bilious—
That you have a torpid liver, and what you need is something to rouse it and make it active enough to throw off the impurities that clog it; something to invigorate the debilitated system, and help all the organs to perform the duties expected of them, promptly and energetically. That "something" is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the great Blood Purifier, which its proprietors have such faith in that they guarantee it to cure. If it does not, your money will be refunded. But it will. Buy it, and be convinced of its wonderful power. If the proof of the pudding is in the eating, the proof of this remedy is in the taking.

AS TO ADVERTISING.

Here is the way an observing advertising genius figures out plain truth:

It is a safe rule to take advertising as you would medicine—when you need it. Advertising is the only medicine for sick business, but it must be of good quality, just as medicine be good to do good.

It is a poor policy to publish a misleading ad. The plainer and more truthful it is the better. Business men are coming to understand this, more and more every day. The time has passed when "people like to be humbugged." Barnum is dead.

When you have decided what to say and how to say it, pick out the best paper you can find and use it. Remember that the best paper is the cheapest, and the place to put your advertising is where the people look for their news. Make the ads newsy and they will pay.

There is nothing mysterious about advertising. It is an exact science. You are simply telling the people where they can get certain needed things. That's all there is of it. If you tell them about something they want or ought to want—if you have a good thing to offer—advertising will sell it. Most any sort of advertising is useful, but newspaper advertising is not only the best, but it costs less than any other kind—service considered. You can get more circulation—talk to more people—for less money, in a newspaper, than in any other way. Figure it out and see.

Saved My Life

$5 Worth of Hood's Sarsaparilla

Severe Case of Nicotine Poisoning.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:

"Gentlemen:—I write these lines to certify that Hood's Sarsaparilla has cured me of a most painful disease from which I have suffered the past four years. It appeared in the form of eruptions on my neck and face, spreading over my body, so painful that I could not sleep at night, and could not work in the day time, and when I did lay down and get into a little doze, if I would move just a little, it would start that terrible sensation, and from the eruptions on my legs and body. I had to wear bandages all the time. My eyes were badly swollen, my back in terrible condition. One physician said it was weed poison, another eczema, and the last told me it was and that I would have to go to a physician who made a speciality of my disease. (I omitted to say that I am a cigar maker by trade.) But Hood's Sarsaparilla had been recommended, and I thought I would try it, and I am heartily thankful that I did. I can truly say that Hood's Sarsaparilla has effected

A SPRING STORY.

A FEW THINGS YOU OUGHT SURELY TO DO AT THIS SEASON

In the spring we feel tired, languid and debilitated. The change from cold to warm weather causes a depression of the vital forces resulting in an inactive state of the stomach, liver, bowels and kidneys. Headache is common, and the blood under goes changes which greatly debilitate the system.

The complexion is apt to be sallow, and dark circles gather under the eyes. If something is not done to overcome these conditions, they will last indefinitely and may result in severe sickness. Read the experience of the well known Mrs. A. A. Herrick, of 40 Everett Street, East Somerville, Mass.

"Two years ago I contracted a very severe cold that settled all over my body. My head left side pained me all the time, I had no appetite and could not sleep at all nights. I was so nervous I thought I would be insane and my work seemed like a mountain ahead me.

"I would become completely exhausted on the slightest exertion. I was obliged to give up and take to the bed. I lay there several weeks but got no better. I began to fear I should never get well as nothing seemed to affect me. I was finally advised to use Dr Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, and did so.

MRS. A. A. HERRICK.

"It seemed to quiet me as soon as I began using it. Before a week I could rest and sleep through the night and could feel my strength coming back.

"When I begun the second bottle I could see I had improved very much. I continued taking it and in a few months no one would know I had been sick with severe nervous prostration.

"It also cured me of female troubles which I had been a great sufferer from. It is a wonderful medicine and I cannot say enough in praise of it. I advise any person afflicted with any of these complaints to use it, and I am positive they will get well."

If you want to be perfectly strong and healthy the best possible thing to do is to take this great curer and strengthener. You can be cured quicker in the spring than at any other season. You must take a spring medicine, everyone knows that, and Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy is the best and most certain because it always cures.

It is the discovery of Dr Greene, of 35 West 14th Street, New York City. He is the most successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases, and can be consulted free, personally or by letter.

KEEP MOVING RIGHT ALONG.

The wisdom of continued hustling, notwithstanding dull times, is illustrated by a fable. Two frogs fell into a cream crock. One immediately gave up in despair and said:

"There's no use in struggling. We might as well realize at once that we must die, and pass in our checks gracefully."

"You may do as you please," replied the other, 'but for my part I shall continue to jump as long as there is life enough left in me, and perhaps something will turn up."

The faint-hearted frog was impressed with the wisdom of this latter speech and accordingly both frogs began vigorously to hop up and down and keep up a constant commotion in the cream crock.

The result was that the cream was soon churned into butter, whereupon both frogs got on top of the butter and hopped out.

Moral: When you feel blue and discouraged and are inclined to think that there is no use in wasting energy when times are dull, remember the two frogs that fell into the cream crock and keep a jumping.

BOLD BURGLARS SENTENCED.

Carrollton, O., April 1.—During the night of January 5 John, Tom and Larry Rourke, three brothers, went to the residence of Samuel Long, an aged farmer, and after shooting the big watch-dog on the premises broke into the house. Isabella Pearch, the housekeeper, aged 60, ran downstairs after they came up, and after getting an ax went back to help defend her employer and his property. She attacked them boldly, and the gashes on the body of Tom Rourke made by the plucky old lady's ax were chiefly instrumental in apprehending the gang. While Tom Rourke was fighting for his own life old man Long was knocked senseless and the house searched. A sister of Miss Pearch, aged 80, received injuries that night from which she died afterwards. The men got $3000 in cash and left the place.

Next morning they were trailed to their home, a mile distant, and arrested together. In common pleas court yesterday Judge Taylor and Billingsley sentenced John and Tom Rourke to five years each in the penitentiary and Larry Rourke to four years. The charges were burglary and robbery.

At the same sitting of court Abram Keck, an outlaw, received a sentence of two years to the penitentiary for assault and battery with intent, etc., and Ed. Gamble was given one year in the penitentiary for burglary.

One Pellet a dose, Little but lively. The use of the old style, drastic pills is an outrage on the human system.

PENNSYLVANIA POPULISTS.

Harrisburg, March 31.—County Chairman Miller, of the People's party, said today concerning the state convention of that party which is to be held here on May 1:

"State Chairman R. A. Thompson, of Indiana, has requested me," said he, "to secure a hall sufficiently large to seat from 350 to 500 people. I think we will get the court house. The prospects for a large representation are good, county organization being perfected all over the state. I expect delegates from at least 55 counties. No names have been suggested for governor, or any of the chief offices, for that matter, but a full ticket will be nominated on May 1 without a doubt."

Mr. Miller did not think the Coxey movement would injure the People's party, but on the contrary looked for some good to come out of Ohio. "Coxey's movement," said he, "has already borne good fruit in that it has called the attention of the people throughout the country to the great economic questions of the day."

SIXTY CHARTERS FOR MARCH.

There were sixty charters issued by the state department during the current month. This number includes five building and loan associations. The remaining fifty-five companies were capitalized in the aggregate at $5,178,500. One of these—Bailey, Banks & Biddle, of Philadelphia,—has since increased its capital stock from $100,000 to $800,000. Last month the number of companies chartered outside of building and loan associations was fifty-nine, with an aggregate capital of $3,751,000. Eighteen corporations increased their capital stock this month $1,849,000 and seventeen increased their indebtedness $4,667,000. Two decreased their capital stock $30,000. During the month sixty seven foreign corporations filed the necessary papers in the department to permit them to do business in Pennsylvania.

$100-REWARD, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of Testimonials. Address. F. J. WERE BURNED TO DEATH.

A Natural Gas Explosion Caused Great Excitement.

Alexandria, Ind., April 1.—The Whiteside block on Main street was demolished by a terrible explosion of natural gas, thought to have resulted from a leak in the basement, shortly before midnight last night. Seven men were buried in the ruins, four of whom were burned to death and three taken out badly injured.

The killed are: Ozea Ball, Harry Bowyer, Jesse Harrell, Charles Hoover. The injured are: William Heard, bruised about the head and shoulders, will recover; William Pyle, proprietor of the barber shop in the building where all the victims were at the time, dragged from the ruins, badly crushed, will die; James Scott, badly burned and crushed, will recover.

Two charred bodies were recovered from the burning embers, but could not be identified.

The ground floor was occupied by Pyle's barber shop, the American Express company's office and the Whiteside clothing establishment. The floor of the building rose like an earthquake and fell all in a mass of ruins. Fire started at once and only the three men above named among the injured could be extricated from the ruins before the firemen were driven away by the heat of the flames. The loss to the building and stocks will not exceed $10,000.

THE COMPLEXION OF A CHINESE.

Is not yellower than that of an unfortunate individual whose liver complaint has assumed the chronic form. The eyeballs of the sufferer assume a saffron hue, there is dull pain in the region of the organ affected, the tongue is coated, breath sour, sick headaches usually but not always occur, and there is sometimes dizziness on arising from a sitting posture. Constipation and dyspepsia are also attendants of this very common ailment, always in its aggravated form, liable to breed abscesses of the liver, which are very dangerous. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters wholly eradicates it, as well as the troubles complicated with it and which it originates. In chills and fever, a complaint which always yields to the Bitters, the liver is seriously involved. This fine alternative tonic removes costiveness and indigestion, rheumatic, nervous and kidney trouble and debility.

GENERAL COXEY'S "HOSTS."

The Motley Crowd Arrived at Sewickley Yesterday.

Sewickley, Pa., April 2.—A line of curious humanity extending continuously over almost the entire route watched the Coxey troops march to-day. At 7 o'clock to-night a vacant lot in the centre of this fashionable town was encamped upon by the motley brigade, the Sewickley people standing almost amazed at the sight. The men were very tired from their long tramp and endured the long delay necessary to erect their tents and prepare supper with rather ill-contentment.

The objections to the poor board served yesterday appeared this morning to have had a good effect, as the meal then served was a substantial one. Just before the start 150 students of Geneva college, a co-educational school, near Camp Valley Forge, appeared and requested a speech. By complying Browne and Coxey delayed the command until 10.30. It was a fourteen-mile tramp to Economy, where lunch was to be served. The line of march through the valley town was a wonderful sight. As the army passed through fifty wheelmen and a mob of boys headed it, while the ragged troops trundled along to the rear and thousands looked on. The order continued with but few changes until near Economy. The men marched well, reached the Harmonties' home at 3 o'oclock. There a most substantial cold lunch was served in the open air and an hour's rest indulged in. From that point the tramp to Sewickley was through the most delightful portion of the upper Ohio valley where some of the finest residences in Allegheny county are situated. From all points came fashionable dressed horsemen, people in carriages, on bicycles and on foot. On the edge of the town Sheriff Richards, of Allegheny county, and three deputies met the army. It developed that Messrs. Way and Long, of the town, had petitioned for the sheriff and furthermore the towns people were found to be badly scared of the army, and apprehensive of fearful results of its visit. A detail of detectives from High Allegheny, headed by Inspector McKelvy, accompanied the troops from Beaver Falls to this point. After a careful inspection McKelvy stated that there were but four men known to him as "crooks." They are on the outlook for Pittsburg "crooks" who crowded into the town to-night.

While the authorities have no fear of any trouble with the Coxey army they are afraid of local "crooks" taking advantage of the excitement. General orders issued to-night announce the march to Pittsburg to begin at 9.30 o'clock to-morrow morning.

The camp at Allegheny will be called Camp Kirkland. A monster demonstration is promised at Pittsburg.

SALARIES FOR JUDGES

Auditor General Gregg's annual report shows that the cost of the Pennsylvania judiciary last year was $481.218.07. Of this the judges of the supreme court received $47,844.67, the judges of the court of common pleas, $368,098.38, the judges of the separate court, $38,750, and the associate judges, $28,984.26. A large number of the common pleas judges made considerable extra money by holding court outside their districts, for which service they are allowed $10 a day in addition to the mileage involved.

DIAMOND ROBBER TEFFT.

Chicago, March 31—Rollo Tefft, the diamond robber who escaped from the Allegheny City jail a week ago Friday by sawing off the bars of his prison cell and escaping through the police court, was arrested here tonight by central station detectives. The arrest was made at the request of Assistant Superintendent of Police Glenn, of Allengheny, who has been tracing him since his escape.

Glenn just missed him by about two minutes at Niles, Mich., to-day and wired the officers here on what train they might expect him. Mr. Glenn showed great perseverance and good detective ability in getting his man. Tefft is wanted in Washington for stealing a diamond from a man named Hayes.

A POOR SUBSTITUTE for a well-known medicine pays more profit to a dealer, when he sells it. That's the reason he annoys you with his claim that it is "just as good." And that is one reason why every woman who wants Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription should go to a reliable dealer.

Every woman does want it, if she's suffering from any ailment peculiar to her sex. If she's "run-down," or delicate, she needs it just as much. It's a special tonic, that builds her up; a legitimate medicine, that corrects and cures. For every "female complaint" and weakness, it is the only remedy so safe and certain that it can be guaranteed. If it doesn't benefit or cure, in every case, you have your money back.

What else, can be "just as good" for you?

BRIMFUL of confidence in it—the manufacturers of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. It's a faith that means business, too—it's backed up by money. This is what they offer: $500 for a case of Catarrh which they cannot cure.

A LITTLE FATHERLY ADVICE.

"If ever you marry," said an old gentleman to his son, "let it be a woman who has judgment enough to superintend the getting of a meal, taste enough to dress herself, pride enough to use Dr Pierce's Favorite Prescription, whenever she needs it." The experience of the aged has shown the "Favorite Prescription" to be the best for the cure of all female weaknesses and and derangements. Good sense is shown by gettting the remedy from your druggist and using it whenever you feel weak and debilitated. It will invigorate and cannot possibly do harm.

MODERN MIRACLES.

Careful and Complete Investigation by a "Journal" Reporter.

[From the Albany, N. Y, Evening Journal.]

A few days since, the Times Union of this city published a remarkable letter, under the head-lines of "An Athens Miracle." The statements made were so unusual, and the interest occasioned so great, that an investigation by a "Journal" reporter seemed a necessity. The letter was that Mr. Lewis Clow, of Athens, N. Y., had been stricken with kidney disease. The best of medical attendance was obtained, and failed to benefit him. While in this almost hopeless condition, he began the use of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, and it cured him; and furthermore, that there were other residents who had a similar experience.

To verify these statements and get what other information would be of interest to our readers, the Journal representative left Albany and soon found himself in the pretty village of Athens. It did not take long to satisfy the reporter that the statements of Mr. Clow were in every way true. The Rev. D. William Lawrence, pastor of the Lutheran church, Postmaster True and Justice of the Peace Gaeller, when asked about it, said that every word was true to their knowledge.

Mr. Clow was at death's door suffering with kidney trouble. The physicians failed to help him, and he was cured by the use of Dr David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. Also that Favorite Remedy had performed as marvelous a cure for Mrs. Casper Brooks, wife of the proprietor of the Robins House, of that place.

Calling upon Mrs. Brooks, your reporter stated his mission, and Mrs. Brooks replied that she would be perfectly willing to tell all apout her wonderful recovery.

"Yes," said she, "I had a hard fight for health, but Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy restored mine. My first trouble was ulcers of the womb, and they caused me the most intense pain and suffering. I consulted our regular physician, but he did not benefit me; I kept growing worse. My kidneys were getting very much diseased, and this combination of troubles was almost unbearable. At my husband's suggestions, I consulted physicians at Albany Hudson Chatham, and took their medicine and prescriptions but found no benefit. You can imagine my terrible condition at this time, after employing five of the best physicians, all to no purpose but at this dark hour a ray of light broke in upon me. Dr. Wm. Smith, of Jewett Heights, was recommended, and it is to him I owe my good health, for it was Dr. Smith who prescribed Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Cemedy for me. I purchased a bottle and commenced taking it, and began to feel better and kept improving daily, the ulcers healed up, and my kidney trouble left me entirely. My case was greatly complicated, and did not stop here; I suffered misery from those terrible headaches so common among women, but I kept on taking Favorite Remedy; and am now entirely free from these diseases.

I am told that I have a tumor that cannot be cured unless I go to a hospital, but I think Favorite Remedy will, in time cure that. I have been so well for the past few months, said Mrs Brooks, with a smile on her face, that I do nearly all the work about the hotel, and am getting along with about one half the help we used to employ. I certainly don't want to pose as a miracle but what else could you call my recovery?

Such a straightforward statement convinced the Journal reporter that Dr Kennedy's Favorite Remedy was certainly a Godsend to the sick and suffering.

Hundreds of people in and about Athens are conversant with the facts of these cases. In speaking to Mr Horton, the well-known druggist of that place, he said: "O, yes, we sell quantities of Favorite Remedy. Why, there's Joseph McGiflet, William Mackey, Martin Hallenbeck, Casper Hallenbeck, Mrs Robert Tiffany, and many others, say that Dr David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy is worth its weight in gold."

The investigation of the Journal reporter admit of but one conclusion; that as this great medicine is within the reach of all, it should be used by those who are suffering from rheumatism, dyspepsia, biliousness, kidney, liver and urinary troubles. It will correct the worst cases of habitual constipation, and is a certain cure for the diseases and weakness of women, particularly those that originate in change of life. It cures scrofula, erysipelas, salt rheum, eczema, sores and tumors, gravel, diabetis or Bright's disease. Favorite Remedy is acknowledged by the medical profession as nature's antidote for uric acid.

A benefit is always experienced from the first bottle, and it never fails to cure when the directions are followed. Dr David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy is to be found with every dealer in medicine, at one dollar a bottle, or six bottles for five dollars.

AN AWAKENING.

What is it that is awakening people all over the land and causing such a thrill of excitement and gratitude everywhere among the sick and suffering? It is the new departure by that greatest and most successful specialist in the cure of all nervous and chronic diseases, Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th Street, New York, who offers to the sick everywhere the opportunity of consulting him by letter, free of charge. Think of it, sufferers, you who have sought in vain for relief, or for a satisfactory explanation of your disease! By writing him about your complaint, this great physician will send you, free of charge, an exact explanation of your disease and what to do to be cured.

He gives most careful and explicit attention to all letters, and makes you understand just what your complaint is. He is the discoverer of that great nerve cure, Dr Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, and uses nothing in his practice but harmless vegetable medicines. The success which he is having in curing disease through letter correspondence is marvelous. Write him, then, all about your complaint and you will without doubt be cured.

IN SOUTH CAROLINA.

The Trouble Seems to Be Over and the Governor Says Law and Order Prevails.

COLUMBIA, S. C., April 2.—Governor Tillman declares that law and order now reigns. Surveilance of the telegraph offices is maintained. Captain McCaughren and officers of the Newberry rifles detailed for this duty last night performed it fearlessly, rejecting quantities of matter, but this morning McCaughren addressed a letter to the governor, declaring that his men came here to protect property and not supervise the people's private affairs, resigning his command and surrendering the arms and equipments of his men. Governor Tillman accepted it and the company went to Newberry. Holloway, a fugitive spy, arrived here safe this morning. Troops passed an uneventful night at Darlington.

FLORENCE, S. C., April 2.—This place has been perfectly quiet throughout the day in spite of the fact that a county political convention was held here. When Adjutant General Farley arrived in this city this evening he was accompanied by about 100 militiamen. Guards have been thrown out and everything is quiet. There is no danger of any disturbance here unless precipitated by the militia being ordered to take very radical action. It is hoped this is not probable.

DARLINGTON, S. C., April 2—Darlington passed its first day under martial law without special incident. Nothing has yet occurred to mar the peace and quiet which was restored before the advent of the military under orders from Governor Tillman. The first thing to happen since the arrival of the troops to which any possible significance can be attached was the postponement of the hearing of the testimony before the coroner's jury to-day, under orders from Governor Tillman. Some fear that this means that the constables are to be brought here under military escort to testify at the inquest. If this occurs trouble is likely to occur.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—A message from Darlington to the Southern Associated Press agent here at 11 o'clock tonight says: "Telegraph office has been closed to all newspaper dispatches."

THE BRECKINRIDGE TRIAL.

Washington, April 2.—The trial of the Pollard-Breckinridge case was adjourned this afternoon until to-morrow at the most interesting point of the cross examination—a mystery involving an alleged letter addressed "My dear Louise," which the plaintiff's council will try to prove was written to her in 1886 at a time when, according to his testimony, Colonel Breckinridge had suspended his relations with her and did not know her whereabouts.

The chief interest in this, the second dubious letter introduced in the case, centres in the name Louise. Miss Pollard avers that she went to Cincinnati in February, 1885, and in June of that year gave birth to a baby at St. Joseph's asylum, at Norwood, near Cincinnati, and that after leaving the asylum she went to the house of a physician under the assumed name of Louise Wilson.

The defendant denied positively this afternoon having any knowledge of "My dear sister Louise," or of haying given a letter beginning that way to a type-writer to copy.

The cross-examination of the defendant will be continued all through to-morrow and probably the next day.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is Dr. Samuel Pitcher's prescription for Infants and Children. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. It is a harmless substitute for Paregoric, Drops, Soothing Syrups, and Castor Oil. It is Pleasant. Its guarantee is thirty years' use by Millions of Mothers. Castoria destroys Worms and allays feverishness. Castoria prevents vomiting Sour Curd, cures Diarrhœa and Wind Colic. Castoria relieves teething troubles, cures constipation and flatulency. Castoria assimilates the food, regulates the stomach and bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. Castoria is the Children's Panacea—the Mother's Friend.

Castoria.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."

DR. G. C. OSGOOD, Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."

DR. J. F. KINCHELOE, Conway, Ark.

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."

H. A. ARCHER, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."

SITUATION IS SERIOUS.

A Number of Cambria County Miners on a Strike—Only One Mine at Gallitzin in Operation.

The situation among the miners along the Pennsylvania railroad in Cambria county is becoming somewhat serious. The men in a number of the towns are now out, and it is believed that all of the men will refuse the reduction.

All the notices of reduction that had been posted at South Fork have been withdrawn pending the decision in other places.

The men employed at Scott's mines at Ehrenfeld, where notices of the reduction were given on Saturday, intend to strike.

Only one mine at Gallitzin is now in operation, that of Taylor & McCoy, employing about 180 men; the Gallitzin Coal and Coke company, 400 men; the Beech Grove, 180 men, at Gallitzin, and the East End, 180 men, at Bennington are idle, the men awaiting the decision at other places.

The miners at Patton, Hastings, Spangler and Carrolltown, along the Cambria and Clearfield railroad, are likewise waiting upon the action of the miners in other parts of the district, though in many instances they are still at work.

The miners of Trout Run, at Portage, held a mass meeting on Monday and decided to accept the reduction and go to work. The miners of Lilly, Ben's Creek and Sonman did likewise.

The district and national officers of the miners' organization desire that the men should continue at work until the meeting of the national convention at Columbus on the 10th inst., when, if the reports of the delegates from southern and western coal fields are favorable a general suspension of soft coal mining throughout the United States will be made, in the hope of advancing the price of coal to such an extent that the operators can afford to pay better wages to the miners.

WILL NOT ACCEPT THE REDUCTION.

Philipsburg, Pa., April 3.—As predicted last night, the miners at their mass meeting to-day voted not to accept the reduction offered them, and this morning, with the exception of one or two small mines, all work was suspended. The leaders are in receipt of dispatches to the effect that throughout the Cambria county coal fields nearly all the men are out on strike against the reduction. The miners are anxiously awaiting the action of the men in the Dubois and Reynoldsville districts where mass meetings are being held to-day.

PERSONAL NOTES.

—Senator Manderson, of Nebraska, is mentioned as the next commander-in-chief of the G. A. R.

—James Gordon Bennett, with characteristic liberality, has offered three prizes, each $1000, for the Nice regatta of 1894.

—Dr. Edward Everett Hale is 72 years old to-day and will celebrate the anniversary in Washington, where he is making a brief visit.

—The Countess Wachtmeister has arrived from India, en route for San Francisco, to attend the annual convention of the Theosophists.

—The Khedive of Egypt is enjoying a picnic in the desert accompanied by fifty members of his body guard. The party traveled by moonlight, resting during the day.

—Mr. M. J. Fanning, a prohibition orator, will deliver a temperance lecture in the court house on Thursday, May 10th.

—The two candidates for the Presidency of Peru are Pierola and Caceres, with the chances favoring the latter. The election will occur in August.

—Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes has practically recovered from his recent indisposition, and has been enjoying a carriage ride out of Boston several times recently.

—Governor Flower, of New York, sent to the State Senate the renomination of Health Officer Jenkins for confirmation on February 5 and it is now thought that the Health Officer may not get another term.

—Captain Charles King is in collaboration with Mrs. Sutherland, wife of Dr. Sutherland, of Boston, for several years dramatic critic on one of the papers of that city, and with Mrs. Sheridan Fry, an actress before her marriage, on a play which is to be brought out at New Year's. It is adapted from an unpublished story of Captain King's and will contain five female and seven male parts.

THE COXEY ARMY.

It Reaches Columbiana After a Triumphant March.

COLUMBIANA, O., March 29—Ten miles of the worst journey yet made by the Coxey good roads army were covered today. It was a triumphant march, the day's incidents being numerous. After a hot breakfast at Camp Diggs, Salem, tents were struck and the nondescript organization set out in the teeth of a driving snow storm for this town to establish Camp Trenton. The roads were muddy and covered with snow. By hard marching Leetonia was reached shortly after noon. Short stops for review and rest were made at the mining hamlets of Millville and Washingtonville. Just outside of Leetonia an escort of twenty-seven horsemen met the column and conducted it to the place where lunch was served. The entire town was out to see the motley congregation of radical reformers. Justice was done the donors of the hot lunch. Following this the command was drawn up and Carl Browne, marshal of the commonwealth, addressed the citizens of Leetonia. His speech was very sharp and abounded in hot utterances. The most significant remark was: "The powers that control and enslave us are greatly scared. They have sent the representatives of a capitalistic press to dog our footsteps and wreck us if they can. I can go nowhere now but that I am followed by forty argus-eyed demons of hell, eager to catch any instance that will condemn us." An escorting delegation of seventeen horsemen from the Populist club of Columbiana met the army and headed the column towards that town. Progress was slow, owing to the fearful condition of the roads.

Just outside of town word was received by messenger that Commander Coxey was returning on foot to rejoin the column. A hearty cheer was given him as he resumed his accustomed place. Columbiana was filled with people from the entire country. The line of march was direct to the site of Camp Trenton, east of town. An old foundry building was secured for sleeping quarters and stabling for the horses. The populist club had secured an immense amount of supplies for the command. After the encampment was formed a secret meeting of the community was held. No information was given out concerning. The marshal had general orders published late in the evening, naming to-morrow night's camp at East Palestine, Camp Gompers.

Mr. Coxey as commander was greatly pleased at the showing made by the army. It now numbers about 200 men and the class is improving.

Concerning his financial affairs the commander stated to-night that he had arranged with the threatening creditors to their satisfaction.

A packed house greeted Coxey and Browne at the evening meeting and give vigorous applause to populistic hits. About thirty recruits are expected from this neighborhood.

East Palestine, Ohio, March 30.—Under a clear sky and over muddy roads, the citizens of the Commonweal marched from their comfortable quarters at Columbiana to Camp Gompers on the fair grounds here The march was a most pleasant one, and a hospitable reception and bounteous lunch was served by the populist people of New Waterford. That town was in gala day outfit and gave the army of peace the most cordial greeting it has yet had: One hundred students of Mount Hope college, and a local band marched out to meet the Coxey troop, escorting them to town. East Palestine, a pottery and mining town of 2,000 people was all agog to see the curious army. Women and children flocked to the town's edge to get a glimpse There was no gathering of sympathetic friends. The army arrived here at 4 o'clock well tired of the ten miles march and began setting up camp. For the first time since the Alliance encampment the men were ordered to sleep in camp. After mess the evening was taken up with army matters. A newly adopted code of regulations governing conduct on the march or in camp was adopted. The habit of the men in going from camp to camp by freight trains was ordered discontinued. Thirty-two new recruits were recorded and seven men discharged by the chief marshal.

Shortly after the arrival of the troops Commander Coxey left for Pittsburgh to attend to pressing financial matters.

East Palestine made no special preparation to receive the "good roads" expedition. No provisions were offered. The use of the fair grounds and armory hall for the night meeting was given gratis. From his general orders issued this evening Chief Marshal Browne makes special note of the fact that to-morrow the army crosses into Pennsylvania. He states explicitly that there need be no fear of Governor Pattison interfering as long as order is preserved. The army leaves here at 9. 30 tomorrow, stopping for lunch at Darlington and establishing Camp Marion Butler at New Gallilee at 4 o'clock.

MAY CAUSE SERIOUS TROUBLE.

Atlanta, Ga., March 29.—A special from Darlington, S. C., says: Dispensary spies threatened to raid private houses at that place yesterday in a search for contraband liquor. The citizens formed an armed mob and warned the spies not to attempt the search. The sheriff appealed to Governor Tillman and the latter ordered out the local militia to support the spies. While the militia captain and the sheriff were in conference, the citizens invaded the armory and took away the militias guns. Governor Tillman then procured a special train and ordered the Sumter light infantry to the scene, but before they started quiet was restored. The mob was composed of the best citizens, and serious trouble will ensue if the spies insist on searching private houses.

DECLINED THE APPOINTMENT.

Washington, March 30.—Speaker Crisp has declined the appointment as United States senator from Georgia to succeed the late Alfred H. Colquitt.

The speaker had nothing to say in regard to his declination, but produced the message. It is as follows:

"Hon. W. J. Northern, governor, Atlanta, Ga. I have an ambition to represent Georgia in the senate of the United States, and appreciate very highly the appointment you have given me; but for the present at least I must put aside my ambition I was, as you know, unanimously nominated speaker. In accepting this office, I have incurred obligations to our party throughout the country. A very large majority of the democratic members have united in a request that for the remainder of this congress, I continue in the position to which they have elected me. They base this request upon grounds which I cannot in duty ignore. As speaker I feel to some extent responsible for the action of the house. I feel a pride in its organization and have a settled purpose, so far as my influence extends, to have brought before it, and voted upon, bills which, if in law, redeem to the fullest extent our party pledges. This I think will serve the interests of the people of Georgia. I am grateful to you for the honor you have done me. I am grateful to the numerous friends throughout the state who have seemed pleased with and who have urged my acceptance of this appointment, and beg that you and they will believe what I, in the utmost sincerity say, that in declining it I am sacrificing a cherished ambition to what I regard as a sense of duty.

A TERRIBLE ACCIDENT.

Peoria, Ill., March 30.—Shortly after 10 o'clock this morning, while workmen were engaged in making some repairs on the standpipe at the corner of Bourland and College streets, the great structure gave a lurch, broke squarely off at the base and fell to the ground. It was 120 feet in diameter and contained a million gallons of water. When it fell, Frank Hogan, a lad of 15 years, was standing near and was instantly killed. The injured are: Charles Littlefield, Rolla King, N. S. Swing, all slightly; Frank Colwell had his right leg broken and crushed above and below the knee; John Huber, bruised about the head; W. B. Morris, serious injuries about the head and shoulders; Mrs. John B. Trapp, bruised about the head and shoulders. The damage to property was considerable, as a number of houses were carried from their foundation by the rush of water.

A PLANT DESTROYED BY FIRE.

Williamsport, March 29.—Luppert's furniture manufacturing plant, an extensive establishment in South Williamsport, was destroyed by fire shortly before midnight to-night. The loss will be very heavy.

The fire, impelled by a strong wind, communicated with the dwelling houses on the opposite side of Southern avenue, and many of them are now ablaze.

Fire apparatus was sent from this city and soon after 1 o'clock succeeded in checking the spread of the flames, the heat from the big factory having subsided. Seven or more dwelling houses were destroyed. The loss will aggregate $65,000. The factory employed 150 men.

MORE VICTIMS FOUND.

Wilkes-Barre, March 30.—The eighth body was unearthed to-day at the Gaylord shaft at Plymouth and brought to the surface shortly after 3 o'clock this afternoon. Upon examination it was identified as that of Thomas Morriman, who is survived by a wife but no children. When discovered the body was lying with head down, horribly mutilated by the heavy fall of rock and coal. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon. Part of the remains of another victim of the Gaylord mine disaster was found this morning. It may be 12 hours before the body is taken out, owing to the difficulty experienced by the workmen who are digging for the bodies

A PLOT TO MURDER.

Constantinople, March 30.—A determined attempt to kill the Armenian patriarch as he was leaving the cathedral was made last Sunday. The would-be assassin is 22 years old. He fired twice with a large American revolver at the patriarch, and, after being arrested, admitted that he intended to kill the distinguished prelate. The prisoner added there were several others in the plot and they would eventually carry out the plans to kill the patriarch. During his examination the prisoner said: "We are determined to kill him, because he is incapable of managing Armenian affairs." Several arrests have been made in connection with the plot.

THE POLLARD TRIAL.

The Silver Tongued Orator Takes the Stand in His Own Defense.

Washington, March 29.—Colonel Breckinridge faced Madeline Pollard in the circuit court of the district to-day and told part of his version of their intercourse.

The morning session of the court passed in the reading of dispositions by the defense and in hearing the testimony of two witnesses who were introduced by the plaintiff to impeach the evidence of Brant and Kaufman, the two frequenters of houses of ill fame in Lexington, who said they had known Miss Pollard as an inmate of one of them.

Colonel Breckinridge, when called to the stand, spoke easily, softly, earnestly, with just a touch of that musical ring in his voice which has helped give the reputation of a spell binder. He told his story without attempt at dramatic finish. When he entered the box he was cool and calm, but this demeanor changed to nervousness when he was asked to tell of the beginning of illicit relations between plaintiff and himself.

He had only finished his story of the carriage ride on the night of the day he first called on Miss Pollard at the Sayre institute, in Cincinnati, when the court was adjourned for the day.

Colonel Breckinridge made no excuses for himself in telling the story of how he and Madeline Pollard began their guilty relations.

During the recital, Miss Pollard moved uneasily in her chair, with plain manifestations of an intention to break in upon the story. Mr. Carlisle, her attorney, who sat beside her, managed with difficulty to keep the enraged woman quiet.

The evidence for the day closed at a point where the defendant testified that at the end of the ride he enclosed a ten dollar bill in an envelope and handed it to the plaintiff, who at first refused it, but eventually accepted it.

Washington, March 30.—From 10 o'clock this morning until shortly after 4 o'clock this afternoon with an intermission of three quarters of an hour Colonel Breckinridge told more about his relations with Madeline Pollard. He denied that he had ever promised to marry her. Miss Pollard and himself, he said, had made an agreement that she should pretend to Mrs. Blackburn that he and she were engaged to be married in order to divert the suspicions which that lady entertained, but this agreement, he said, was conditioned on the plaintiff going away out of the lives of both of them. Stories of three attempts made by the plaintiff to take his life were told by Colonel Breckinridge with interesting details. He told how Miss Pollard pursued him, how she threatened him with making public their relations, how she gave him the choice of marriage, or death after his secret wedding in New York and how he had made unsuccessful attempts to send her away from Washington were all narrated by the defendant in simple direct language. During all this recital Miss Pollard sat looking at Colonel Breckinridge and he occasionally turned toward her and seemingly addressed himself to her. Once only did she openly resent his words and that was when Colonel Breckinridge told the plaintiff that she was certainly bound in gratitude and by a nearer tie than that to marry Mr. Rodes. Miss Pollard cried out at this point that Colonel Breckinridge was not telling the truth and Judge Bradley was obliged to admonish her.

The indications were when the court adjourned that the direct examinations of the defendant would close during the morning session on Monday to which day the court adjourned.

Then will follow the still more interesting cross examination.

CLOSED HIS SCHOOL.

Mr. J. H. Oliger, one of Centre county's successful school teachers, closed his term of school at Pleasant Hill school house, Spring township, on Thursday, the 29th. The term was a success in every line of advanced teaching. Mr. Oliger is a teacher of ripe experience, as can be attested by the advance made by his pupils in their studies. This was his fourteenth successive term taught, his first experience as a teacher being in the west. Since then he has distinguished himself as one of the leading educators of the country. Mr. Oliger is a graduate of one of the best Normal schools in the state, where he learned the science of teaching thoroughly and today is ranked at the head of his chosen profession, and has been highly complimented for the good work he has invariably performed in the school room. He is also a Justice of the Peace and, in that line, he also commended by those having business transacted by him. During his summer vacation, we are informed, he will furnish school furniture and school supplies to school boards needing them. As a man of rectitude and honesty of purposes few, if any, excel him.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS.

Judge York has decided that in sentencing a party convicted of a crime to pay a fine and be imprisoned. It is beyond the power of the court to order the defendant imprisoned for the non-payment of the fine in addition to the imprisonment imposed as part of the punishments. Judge York's head appears to be level.

NEW UMPIRE REGULATIONS.

The new league rules of base ball requires the umpire to wear a body protector and stand behind the plate to judge all plays during the season, that is, so far as judging balls and strikes are concerned. They will not be permitted to continue the unsatisfactory practice of standing behind the pitcher, thus annoying the fielders and at the same time misjudging plays at the plate.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.

Becoming despondent over family affairs Mrs. Sadie Shaffer, wife of John Shaffer, the famous ball player with the Demorests, of Williamsport, Friday afternoon attempted suicide by taking a dose of that deadly poison, prussic acid.

Fortunately for the lady her condition was discovered and a physician at once summoned who administered antedotes and with considerable work had her out of danger and at 10 o'clock that night she was reported as improving and will undoubtedly recover.

Mr. and Mrs. Shaffer have been separated for nearly a year and this is supposed to have been the cause of her attempting to end her existence.

THEY ARE MAD.

Just at present there is a little discord in the ranks of the local democratic politicians, occasioned by the part the county chairman, Ellis L. Orvis, Esq., has taken and is taking in the postoffice fight in this place. Mr. Orvis on Monday went to Washington, in company with two or three others, in the interest of one of the candidates, and now the friends of some of the other candidates are on their ear, they believing that it should not be the part of the county chairman to ally himself to any one man or take sides for any candidate for the postmastership, but keep his hands off and leave the candidates an open field to fight their own battles in.

THE POST OFFICE MUDDLE.

The aspirants for postmaster at this place and their friends have all returned from their last pilgrimage to Washington City. From the most reliable information obtainable Congressman Kribbs and Chief Clerk Kerr are strong advocates of the appointment of David Fortney, but for some reason, unknown to the outside world, the President hesitates to comply with their wishes, but it is said that if Mr, Fortney is not appointed this week, there will be no appointment made for two or three weeks to come, and that the appointee will be a "dark horse" or in other words, a new man and all the present aspirants will be left in the cold.

AN AURORA BOREALIS.

The northern and western sky was illuminated last evening by the display of the aurora borealis, commonly called the northern lights. The streamers of light had attained the highest degree of brilliancy at about 8 o'clock. They apparently reached their limit in the zenith directly overhead, and were first of a greenish cast, which, after a time, gradually turned to gray, and then to a lead color. From the point overhead a faint pink tint stretched away due north and lost itself at the horizon. The electrical display was witnessed by many people, who were attracted by its beauty. The lights were visible for three hours.

EMPLOYES AND FAMILIES.

Owing to the case of smallpox in Lewisburg. Superintendent Blair has ordered that all employes coming in contact with trainmen running to that town to apply to Dr. Smull of Williamsport, one of the physicians of the relief department, to be vaccinated. When the employes request it their families will also be vaccinated free of charge. The order applies to employes of the Tyrone division, which includes the roads running from Tyrone to Lock Haven and from Tyrone to Lewisburg.

A COMING MARRIAGE.

Invitations have been issued for the wedding of Miss Mary Agnes Boal, daughter of Capt. and Mrs. George M. Boal, of near Centre Hall, to Mr Charles H. Meyer, the popular young postmaster of that place, to take place on Thursdry evening, April fifth. Both parties are well known and the coming event is a matter of great interest to a host of warm friends and well-wishers.

DIED IN PATTON TWP.

On February 9th, 1894, at the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. Miles Mattern, in Patton township, Mrs. Margaret Litzel departed this life at the advanced age of almost 83 years. Deceased was born in Snyder county on the 27th day of April, 1811. She was a devout member of the M. E. church, having become allied, as a member, with the same thirty-five years ago.

OF INTEREST TO SUNDAY SCHOOLS

April 22, this year, will be the one hundredth anniversary of the going into effect of the Sabbath school law. The Pennsylvania state Sabbath committee desire that the day be locally celebrated all over the state by the various Sabbath associations, by united action of the churches, and other Christian organizations and labor unions.

SPECIAL TRAIN TO LEWISBURG.

The Beech Creek railroad will run a special train from Bellefonte and Lock Haven to accommodate those who desire to attend the seventy fifth anniversary of the Odd Fellows that occurs in Lewisburg on April 26. Thy Repasz band will accompany the Williamsport lodges.

OVERCOMING SELFISHNESS IN A CHILD.

A child is ungenerous. It refuses to divide a gift with its companions. The mother cannot persuade it to generosity by making a direct appeal to that feeling. She takes the child upon her knee and reasons with it. She attempts to excite generosity through the reason. She fails. Then she attempts to excite the child's emulation by holding up and praising the conduct of other children that are generous, hoping to reach generosity in the child through its desire to equal or excel those with whom it is contrasted in that which is praiseworthy. Again she fails. Then she shames the child, i. e., she endeavors to excite its generosity through the feeling of shame. She fails still again. Then she puts the child down firmly and gently, and gives it to understand that she is wounded and grieved that a child of hers should be ignominious. That masters its selfishness!

The child's affection for its mother is deep and strong, and that feeling at last comes to the rescue, and the child is willing to do, out of love for mother, what it was not willing to do out of shame, or pride, or generosity. Here was this feeling that lingered to be excited by one of its co-ordinate feelings, and the mother learns to deal with the child by drawing out first one and then another of the collateral feelings by which to excite a third, and the one that responds to the touch.—[Ladies Home Journal.

CUTE AND TRUTHFUL SAYINGS.

A gift of God is never lost, nor does it ever cease to be valued.

A good husband and father will also make a good neighbor and an honest business man.

Nothing is easier to live a Christian life if we make it the first object of life. But nothing is harder if we make it the second.

You cannot always tell by appearances who is the richest. Paul in his prison was a much richer man than Nero in his palace.

You can't tell by the length of a man's life how much his soul will weigh in Heaven. Methuselah lived nine hundred and sixty nine years, and yet nothing good is said of him. His biography can all be written in less than a dozen words. And Methuselah lived nine hundred sixty and nine years and he died.

There is not a mansion in Heaven that would not be a thousand times hotter for the unpardoned sinner than the lowest place in the pit.

Men who are the most devilish are the hardest to convince that there is a devil.

The man who makes his own God generally makes one that gives him but little rest.

SOUTH CAROLINA WAR.

COLUMBUS, D. C., March 20.—News has been received here from Darlington of a fight to-day between the citizens and state constabulary at the depot as the constables were about leaving. Constables Pepper and McLandon and citizens Norman and L. S. Redmond were killed.

A dispatch to the governor from Florence, in the same county, says the people have seized the rifles of the troops in the armory and are waiting to attack the constables when they reach that place.

Governor Tillman has ordered out the Columbia and Manning militia, and the troops are now getting under arms to repair to the scene of the trouble.

GOT A VERDICT OF $25,000.

New York, March 30.—The trial of William R. Laidlaw's $50,000 damage suit against Russell Sage, the well known millionaire, ended this evening in a verdict of $25,000 damages for the plaintiff. A motion for a new trial was denied by Judge Patterson, before whom the case was tried, but he granted a stay of execution for forty days. An appeal will be taken by Mr. Sage's lawyers.

The case just ended is a famous one and grew out of the sensational attempt of a Boston man named Norcross to kill Mr. Sage in his office by exploding a satchel filled with dynamite because the millionaire refused to give him $1,200,000.

AN ELECTRIC RAILWAY.

Harrisburg, March 30.—Among the charters granted at the state department to-day was one to the Houtzdale and Suburban Electric Railway company, which will construct a line fifteen miles long, passing through Houtzdale, Madeira Ames'ville and Glen Hope. The capital stock is $100,000.

MEMORIES OF HOME.

The heart has memories that never die." The rough rubs of the world cannot obliterate them. Feeble age, trembling on the brink of the grave, has them when all else has fled and been forgotten. They are memories of home—of early home—the time of gay dreams and sunny hours, and cloudless skies, and visions of bliss and glorious happiness. The traveler climbing the mountain of land not his own, will, amid all his toils and his changes, revert, ever and anon, to the time when he roamed the fields and hills of his own native home. The mariner, rocked by the storms of the sea, or resting at some foreign port, will run through the long lapse of years back to the hours, when with a brother or sister, he frolicked the joyous hours away. Neither change nor time, neither age nor years, neither distance nor disease, neither guilt nor passion, can ever efface or blot from the heart these memories of the springtime of life. The very criminal in his cell, or the culprit with but one more night to sleep before he ascends the scaffold to expiate his crime will have these memories coming to him, not, however, as enemies to accuse, but as ministers to exhort; not as demons to scoff, but as angels to compassionate and entreat. They will be thoughts and dreams, not of his disgrace and earthly agony, but they will be thoughts such as will produce on the verge of eternity, the freshness of emotion, of life, and desire, with which existence on earth began.

FREE TRIALS convince the skeptic and point the way which if followed leads to VIGOROUS HEALTH in MEN

THE PASTILLE CURE FOR NERVOUS DEBILITY TRADE MARK

Prof. HARRIS' SOLUBLE MEDICATED Pastille

Has been put up in a proprietary form since 1878, and has been used for years prior to that time in private practice. It is no untried nostrum, of doubtful reputation, but a genuine specific for a very prevalent disease. Thousands of men, of all ages, have at some time in life brought on nervous debility and weakness, with organic weakness, by excesses, excesses, too frequent indulgence or indiscretion and vicious habits, and it is to these that we offer a remedy that will, by its direct action upon the seat of the disease, stop the drain and restore the patient to vigorous health and strength.

Our method of introducing Prof. Harris' Pastille treatment is one which commends itself to all sensible persons—for the reason that we supply it upon their judgment of its value. We ask of our patrons nothing in the way of expense beyond a postal card and a two cent postage stamp. The postal card to be used in sending us their full address and the postage stamp for the letter returning the statement of their case for which we supply them with a question blank, to be filled out and an envelope addressed to ourselves for use in returning it when filled.

FREE TRIAL PACKAGE. When we receive the statement on blank we prepare eight days' treatment and forward it by mail and prepay postage thereon—and along with the eight days' treatment we send full directions for using. The treatment in no way interferes with a person's attention to business, and causes no pain or inconvenience in any way.

We are so positive that it will give perfect satisfaction that we leave the matter of sending orders entirely with those using the free trial treatment. Having satisfied those sending for trial packages of our ability to benefit their sexual condition we feel that they are more largely interested than ourselves in continuing the use of the Pastilles. Even then we do not attempt to rob them by demanding high prices. On the contrary, we make the prices as low as possible, and the same to all. They are as follows: $3 for one month; $5 for two months; $7 for three months.

These prices secure the delivery of the Pastilles by mail. If desired by express we leave the patient to pay the charges. For over ten years we have operated our business upon this plan with satisfactory results.

We ask all persons needing treatment for any of the secret ills which come to mankind through a violation of nature's laws to send us their address on postal card or by letter and allow us to convince them that PROF. HARRIS' SOLUBLE MEDICATED PASTILLES have merit and are what they need.

All communications confidential and should be addressed to

ROBBERY AT MILLHEIM.

Thieves Broke In the Postoffice and Took About $600.

On Wednesday morning the people of Millheim were surprised to hear that during the night the post-office had been entered, the safe blown open and all valuable contents taken which represented about $100 in cash and $500 in postage stamps.

The entrance was made by breaking the front lock on the door. Tools were stolen from Welser's smithshop for this purpose. The valuables were in a safe which was soon drilled and blown open by some strong explosive, and in it they found the cash and stamps. A number of stamps were found along the road, leading from Millheim through the village of Texas, which adjoins Millheim on the North. In this vicinity a horse and buggy was taken from the stable of Mr. Wm. H. Weaver and it is supposed that the thieves continued across into Brush Valley. At this writing nothing more has been learned of their whereabouts. The constable of Millheim and others have started out in that direction to get some trace of the offenders.

The post-office was located at the rear of Musser's hardware store building on Water street. On Tuesday night a masonic banquet was held at that place and a number of people were up after midnight. Some time after 1 o'clock a loud noise was head by Mr. Weaver the hotel man and he went out into the street but could not learn where it came from. Quite a number of persons heard the explosion at the same time but could not learn where it came from.

Mr. J. C. Smith is the recently appointed postmaster at that place. In case he will be held liable it will be a heavy loss. Many think that he will not be responsible for the loss of the postage stamps as he took all possible precautions for their safety.—Democrat.

ROMOLA NEWS NOTES.

The Easter entertainment given by the Christian Endeavor of this place Sunday evening at the Christian church was a grand success, and too much credit cannot be given to those who had the program in charge and to those who took part in the exercises. We give the program in full:

Voluntary.....Miss Emma Robb.
Roll Call.
Song, "Sweet Easter Bells,".....Choir.
Responsive Reading.
Prayer by Mr. Lorenzo Packer.
Select Reading....."Easter Gladness,"
Miss Mame DeLong.
Recitation....."At His Dear Feet."
Miss Lola DeLong.
References 1, 2, 3 and 4.
Hymn by Miss Etta DeLong.
A Talk on Subject.....Clarence Daley.
References 5, 6, 7, 8, 9 and 10.
Song, "The Happy Easter Bells,".....Choir.
Recitation "How Do the Angels Keep Easter?"
Miss Maud Brickley.
Recitation....."My Mother's Song."
Miss Mamie DeLong.
Responsive Reading.
Hymn, "All Hail the Power of Jesus Name,"
Choir.
Benediction.

Special mention should be made of Miss Etta DeLong; also of Miss Brickley and Miss Mamie DeLong, as they certainly rendered their parts in excellent style. This is not meant as detrimental to any others as, taking it all together, it was the best of its kind ever given in Curtin township. The society wishes to thank those who contributed so freely, as the collection was a good one and the money raised is to be used for missionary causes.

Some of our people want to join Coxey and Brown when they cross our state.

Mr. John McCartney is now recovering from the effects of a cut foot.

C. M. Fox says if the weather continues to be so warm he will plant corn in a few weeks.

GOLD IN LYCOMING.

The Williamsport Sun says: "A gentleman of this city, was out hunting rabbits recently in a part of Loyalsock twp, which for sufficient reasons we will not locate definitely at present. A rabbit which he scared up ran into a hollow stump. The hunter in searching for the rabbit, saw the hole was full of sparkling particles much resembling gold. He picked up several pieces of quartz that were thickly imbeded with the yellow metal and brought them to the city with him, exhibiting them to several persons who are versed in metallurgy. These gentlemen all declared that there was gold in the quartz, but not of a sufficient quantity to warrant the expense of working it. It may be possible, however, that the hunter's sample is merely from the outcropping of a rich vein and that a thorough search may reveal untold riches to the prospector.

—The other day Mr. C. D. Kreider, the efficient car inspector, undertook to ride a bicycle with the assistance of some friends. It took a half a dozen men to get him mounted and hold him on then the ride began. From the north end of platform to the south and there a tumble occurred and poor Kreider became so badly tangled up in the wheel that it took a large force of men with two hydraulic jacks to get him out of his difficulty. The next time Mr. Kreider undertakes to ride a bicycle he will get onto a four horse wagon, its far safer.

PROFESSIONAL CERTIFICATES.

The examination of teachers for Professional Certificates will be held in Bellefonte Friday, April 13th. Applicants are requested to bring recommendations.

LISTENING.

A little boy who had been punished for an exhibtion of his ugliness was sent to bed with instructions to pray that he might be a better boy in the future, and his temper might be reformed. His mother stole to the door of his room to make sure that her commands were carried out, and this is the prayer she heard: "O Lord, please take away my bad temper; and while you are about it, you might as well take mother's too."

UNIONVILLE ITEMS.

The mild spring breezes of the middle of March, which invited all nature from under the cover of winter, has suddenly exchanged for a second instalment of winter blasts which are now upon us. The Bald Eagle creek is partially frozen over, the air filled with flying snow and the mercury dropped to fifteen degrees abéve zero on the 27th.

Some farmers have sown oats during the mild weather, and now wish it was yet in the garner.

Many changes of location are being made this spring. Clair Fultz and family have gone to West Virginia and Daniel Buck will move into his house. Norman Calhoun will move to Milroy, Mifflin county, where he will engage in farming. Sherman Spotts, who was recently married to one of our successful public school teachers, Miss Dora G. White, will occupy the Willis Hoover house. Israel Hoover has rented his farm in Bush Hollow to his son, moved to town and will engage in the sale of farm bells, stump machinery, etc. R. T. Comley moved to his farm on Dick's Run and his brother Henry returned to town. L. B. Bathurst has moved his tin shop into the store room of J. Cleaver on Main street. E. M. Lucas and family will move to the farm of Andrew Thompson, one mile southwest of town. Several other changes from house to house in town have taken place.

Mr. Jerry Blair is very ill from the effects of a sore limb, in which it is said gangreene has developed.

We will wait impatiently the fulfillment of the prediction of our friend, John A. Gundy, of Lewisburg, Pa., who said in quite a scholarly address before the Farmer's Institute in this place, that the coming public road in this country is an electric road, constructed with hollow rails so it can be used by cars or other wheeled vehicles, both to be propelled by electricity. The track, being made double, could be traveled by a great number of vehicles, always keeping the right hand track. For local traffic such a highway between this place and Bellefonte would be greatly appreciated and the receipts to be derived from it are incalculable. It would bring the country in close proximity to the schools and churches, as well as all the business interests of Bellefonte. Business men of that place could locate here and have the benefit of cheap living and free air of the valley and mountain, and, for a small sum, be at their place of business in good time in the morning. In fact, we could go to the meat markets of Bellefonte and get beefsteak for breakfast. Our hero proves that it is safer to life and limb to ride than to walk, which proof is logical.

J.

—Mr. Thomas H. Donachy this morning received a dispatch from Lewisburg announcing the death in that place of his brother Mr. George Donachy, which occurred some time Wednesday night. Deceased was aged 78 years past; his death was caused by cancer. Mr Donachy has for the past fifty years been keeper of the cemetery at Lewisburg. He buried the first body in it and since that time has buried all told between four and five thousand. He was the oldest cemetery keeper in the state. Mr. Thomas Donachy departed this afternoon for Lewisburg.

The remains of Mrs. Thomas Gray, formerly of this county, but who died on Tuesday morning at her home in Woolrich, Clinton county, were taken through Bellefonte to-day on their way to Boalsburg where interment will be made this afternoon. Deceased was a sister of Mrs. Ephraim Glenn, of Spring township, and also of Mr. Edward Meese, of Bellefonte. She was aged about 40 years, and leaves a husband and six children to mourn her sudden demise.

—The trout fishing season opens April 15th.

—The wheat is everywhere reported to be looking healthy and green.

—The residence of Mr. L. T. Munson is being beautified with a new application of paint.

—There was a large attendance at the implement sale of J. S. Waite & Co on Wednesday.

—The Democrat asserts that there is considerable illegal fishing being done in Buffalo Run. Where are the authorities while this breach of the law is being committed?

—It is stated that Governor Pattison has appointed John Keichline, Esq., Justice of the Peace for the South and West wards of Bellefonte in place of 'Squire Samuel F Foster, deceased. Mr. Keichline expects his commission in a few days.

—When the State College Glee and Banjo Club makes its appearance in Garman's opera house on April 4th, they should be greeted with a crowded house. They are a good musical organization and, being from Centre county's great educational institution, deserve unlimited patronage.

A NEW TROUT HATCHERY.

Philipsburg Will Make an Effort to Secure it.

The unprecedented success attending the fish cultural work in this state has convinced the Commission of Fisheries that the erection of a trout hatchery in the central part of the state has become an absolute necessity. Having about determined to carry out their plans in this connection, and a location not having as yet been selected, an effort will be made to have the hatchery located near this city. Philipsburg can offer better inducements than any other place in this section of the state, having first class railroad facilities and an abundance of pure sandstone water—several natural trout streams being in close proximity to our town.

Black bare run, at the site of the old saw mill, near Lewis Elliott's, would be a most excellent place to erect a hatchery, as well as other points that could be named. The board of trade, we understand, will take hold of the matter and invite the commission of Fisheries to our city that they may see for themselves the excellent location Philipsburg affords for the new hatchery.—Journal.

House cleaning time is now at hand,
When man will sadly roam
And realize, as ne'er before,
"There is no place like home."

—Were you fooled any on Sunday?

—March went out like a lamb and April came in ditto.

—Fortune does not change men; it only unmakes them.

—Some nervous people waste almost half their time getting there too early.

—In Blair county Judge Bell granted 68 licenses, refused 31 and 3 were held over.

—Adjutant General Greenland has received word that Utah is about to organize a national guard patterned after Pennsylvania's.

—The name of D. F. Fortney Esq., was today sent to senate by the President to the next Postmater at Bellefonte. Congratulations are now in order.

—The meeting at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning was a very interesting service. Fourteen persons joined the church by certificate and nine by confession of faith.

—Sweet harbinger of spring—the Italian band—was visible on the streets of Bellefonte to-day, rendering sweet and delightful music for the appreciation of large crowds of listeners.

—A large number of the Bellefonte Wheelmen's Club took a run on Sunday to Unionville and Curtin's Works. As the day was a most delightful one the trip was greatly enjoyed by all.

—Ely E. Hyatt, of Salona, Clinton county, and a brother of Colonel Hyatt, of Lewisburg, the recently appointed Consul to Santiago, died on Monday from heart disease. He was about 60 years of age.

—Ira Ohl, a Nittany Valley farmer who resides near Lamar, had his hands badly bitten by a dog a few days ago. The vicious canine bit the thumb of Mr. Ohl's right hand and badly lacerated the left hand.

—William Lyon, the butcher, now occupies the house on corner of Lamb and Allegheny streets. All "Billy" needs now is a title of Gen., Col., or something like that, to make him fit completely in that neighborhood.

—Mr. Joseph W. Rightnour is a candidate for the position of court crier. Joe is a firstrate, clever fellow, has a good pair of lungs, and without doubt would make as good an official in that position as it would be possible to select.

—Two deaths which occurred on Sunday was Miss Malone, aged 23 years daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Malone, of Red Bank, who died of consumption, and the 8-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McConnell, also of Red Bank.

—Easter won't come again in March for over fifty years. This fact may prove some consolation to the dear ones who were prevented by the inclement weather on last Sunday from exhibiting their lovely spring bonnets and other Eastertide apparel.

—There is an excellent text for a noble sermon to the editor in this week's issue of the Centre Magnet. A man who teaches and preaches temperance and christianity as the editor pretends to do, should not allow his paper to be used as a screen to cover any kind of wrong or misdoing.

—Rev. Maynard, of Lock Haven, will deliver a lecture for the P. O. S. of A. in their hall in the McClain block on Thursday evening, April 12. There will be several other speakers of prominence, of whom mention will be made later. Don't forget it is free and everybody is invited.

—The regular weekly meeting of the Christian Endeavor Society on Sunday evening was one of unusual interest. It was led by Mr Malcolm Laurie, and to add to the interest of it Miss Blanche Hayes sang a solo. Miss Hayes has a very sweet voice and on Sunday evening she certainly sang her very best. It was a treat much enjoyed by all members present.

—Rev. J. H. McGarrah, the new minister of the Methodist church, arrived in Bellefonte Saturday evening and preached in the M. E. church twice on Sunday. The church was crowded both morning and evening with large congregations to hear the Rev. Gentleman's initial sermons. Mr. McGarrah is a great student, an able theologian and a calm and dispassionate talker. Both his sermons on Sunday were very interesting and greatly pleased those who heard them.

—The Bellefonte Central railroad company is considering the advisability of making a change in their line from here to State College. The new route in contemplation would run from Fillmore across the barrens to the College thus shortening the distance fully five miles. It was reported on Tuesday that the change had been fully decided on and work would soon be commenced, but an official of the road told a NEWS reporter this morning that there was nothing definite yet, the matter only being under consideration.

WORK OF COUNCIL.

What Was Done In Regular Session Monday Evening.

Council convened Monday evening with President Miller in the chair and members Gerberich, Williams, Hillibish, Brockerhoff, Dartt, Bush, Beaver and Garman present. Clerk Isaac Mitchell read the minutes of the previous meeting, which were approved as read.

Mr. Robert Valentine appeared before council to remonstrate against the cutting down of Curtin street in front of his property.

The Street Committee, through Chairman Williams, reported negatively on the petition for an extra light on St. Paul street. Also that Lamb street, from the new depot to Spring street, had been leveled up. The streets have all been cleaned and put in fair condition. Gen. Beaver reported that the borough engineer is now at work on Curtin street, taking a grade of that thoroughfare, but the work is not yet far enough advanced to report on same.

The Water committee reported the removal of a hydrant on Thomas street; made a connection on Spring street for Mr M. I. Gardner, and reported negatively on the application of Mr. Showers for more water on Beaver street. A contract was made with S. M. Buck for water from the private pipe of Mr. Collins, running out North Allegheny street.

The Fire and Police committee reported the account of the ex chief Burgess as audited and find it true and correct, and return thanks for his very efficient administration.

The nuisance committee reported progress on the report of the Board of Health as presented at the last meeting.

The Finance committee reported a balance due the Treasurer of $5,932,19. In this connection Borough Treasurer Charles F. Cook reported that all the borough money was exhausted and asked what could be done for the payment of any borough orders that might be drawn.

Gen. Beaver, on behalf of the special committee appointed on the holding of the Town meeting to take action regarding the proper celebration of Arbor day, reported just what had been done at the meeting held in the court house Thursday evening, March 29th. He further asked that the Village Improvement Committee be authorized to order one hundred sugar maple trees for planting. Gen. Beaver also suggested that the public fountain in the diamond was looking rather rusty and advised a new coat of paint for same.

Mr. Garman moved that the Water committee be instructed to have the public fountain painted. So ordered.

The Street Committee moved that several bills, amounting to twenty-five dollars or more, for repairing board walks, be given to the Borough Solicitor for collection.

The report of the Street Committee against placing a light on St. Paul street was accepted.

In regard to the Board of Health question the Nuisance committee was instructed to make a final report on same by the next meeting night.

On the Finance question the Finance Committee was instructed to insist on a settlement in full of the 1891 duplicate by the borough collector. In regard to raising money to pay current expenses the matter was referred to the Finance committee with power to act.

The Borough Solicitor was instructed to proceed forthwith in the collection of the account against McCalmont & Co.

This concluded the business of the evening and the following bills were approved after which council adjourned.

DEATH OF MRS. MCDERMOTT.

Mrs. John McDermott died quite suddenly at her home on East Bishop street Sunday morning about four o'clock after only a few days' illness with pneumonia. Mrs. McDermott for a number of years has been in delicate health but not confined to her bed until the past few days. Her husband died about one year ago.

Deceased is survived by ten children, all of whom are living, as follows: Charles R. McDermott, in Virginia; Mrs Lina Burns, of Snow Shoe; Mrs. John Swaney, of Winburne; Mrs. Andrew Harris, of Lock Haven; Josephine, Julia, Sue, Marjorie, James and John, all of Bellefonte. She is also survived by six brothers and one sister, the latter Mrs. Annie Powers. Mrs. McDermott was a consistent member of the Catholic church and in her death there has passed away a devoted and loving mother, an affectionate sister and an amiable and loving friend and neighbor.

IN DEEP WATERS.

Two young men of Blair county while returning from a prayer meeting Saturday night discussed the question of baptism. Each supposed his own side and which favored sprinkling and which immersion is not known, but after each had emptied his revolver at the other, one was taken to the hospital and the other to jail. This exponent of the church militant style of tactics is discouraging to the average Christian as the dogmas which are sustained by a shotgun or a revolver are of that fiery sort which should certainly procure conviction—to the men who use them A jury would be the proper medium.

THE FIRE LIGHTED.

Valentine's Furnace Started This Morning. Miss Blanche Hayes Applied the Torch.

A telephone dispatch this morning conveyed the information that the fires in Valentine's furnace would be lighted at 9 o'clock. Consequently a NEWS reporter journeyed thither and was one of a large crowd of ladies and gentlemen, furnacemen and workmen who stood by to see the torch applied. It was just eight minutes past nine o'clock when Miss Blanche Hayes took from the hand of Supt. J. W. Gephart an oil-dip lamp and applied the flame to the priming of the furnace, which had already been fixed and arranged. As the priming was pine wood and oily waste completely saturated with kerosene oil, it was no time at all until the whole pile was a mass of seething fire and flames and the red and lurid glare shot up through the furnace stack.

And thus again is one of Bellefonte's most important industries put in operation, which, it is to be hoped, will prove only the beginning of a period of unusual business activity and good times for Bellefonte. It was about the middle of last August when the Valentine furnace was blown out and since that time it has stood silent and apparently lonely, a calm spectre of what was in the past and what might be in the future. That future is now again to be realized. With the starting of the furnace the mine banks will be operated; the rolling mill will also be operated and labor will thus be furnished for over six hundred men. And what a boom that means for the laboring men of this community. And not only for the laboring men, but for the merchants and business men as well.

The furnace management has on hand a large stock of ore, stone and coke—one of the best supplies ever had—and we predict for them a most successful run; and we truly hope that the run may be as long as it will be successful.

SUBLIME FAITH.

The Breckenridge—Pollard suit is dragging its "slow length along," and in the meantime Congressman Breckenridge excuses his evil deed to his friends by reading to them the 25th and 26th verses of the 7th chapter of Ecclesiastics, which are as follows:

"I tried to search out the reason of things and the wickedness of folly, and I find more bitter than death the woman whose heart is snares and nets, and her hands as bands; whoso pleaseth God shall escape from her." Such sublime faith, under his depressing circumstances, is unparalleled among the chiefest of self-confessed sinners. It takes the cake.

THE MONKEYS ESCAPED.

On Sunday evening Shem Spigelmyer fed monkeys but forgot to lock the door of the cage. After he went away Mr. monkeys quietly opened the door and scampered out into the store room. Of course they had to be recaptured and caged but it was an hour's job before Mr. Spigelmyer, with several assistants, succeded in getting the trio again safely housed. In the future the monkey cage will always be kept locked.

KILLED BY A LOG.

Dubois Courier: Joseph Straw, a woodsman employed for Dennis Gardner, contractor for the Clearfield lumber company, was killed near Gazzam by a log jumping out of a slide and smashing his legs. He spoke but twice and died in about five minutes after being struck. He left a wife and five children whose future dependence is $1,000 life insurance money. Mr. Straw is well spoken of by those who knew him well.

SHOP BURNED.

On Sunday night, about 10.30 o'clock the blacksmith shop of Mr. Henry Norris, at Fillmore, was discovered to be on fire. The alarm was promptly given but before help could arrive the flames had gained such headway that they could not be stopped until the shop, with all its contents, and a number of surrounding outbuildings had been burned. The loss will be total as Mr. Norris had no insurance on his property.

NEW VESTRYMEN.

Last week the following gentlemen were elected to serve as vestrymen in St. John's Episcopal church for the ensuing year:

Senior Warden, C. F. Montgomery; Junior Warden, W. Fred Reynolds; Secretary, W. W. Montgomery. And as the board of vestrymen the following additional: Dr. George F. Harris, Daniel Garman, W. S. Zellers, Edwin F. Garman, Dr. J. L. Seibert and Joseph L. Montgomery.

SHOT FIFTEEN FOXES.

G E Snavely, residing in Centre county, but near the Clinton county line, this morning was paid the bounty on five foxes, which he had shot in Potter township. During the winter Mr. Snavely shot in all fifteen foxes, ten of which were in Centre county.—Lock Haven Democrat.

—Painters and decorators are now hard at work repainting, frescoeing and decorating the interior of the elegant mansion of Col. W. Fred Reynolds, corner of Linn and Allegheny streets. The proposed work will make such a change that the residence will hardly be recognized when completed.

NITTANY POSTOFFICE ROBBED.

The Thieves Secure $200 In Money and the Same Amount in Stamps.

Tuesday night of last week thieves broke into the postoffice at Millheim and stole $100 in money and $500 worth of stamps, and by a strange coincidence just one week later, or this morning about 4 o'clock thieves broke into the postoffice at Nittany Hall, blew open the safe and stole $200 in money and about $200 worth of postage stamps—in the various denominations.

The postoffice is located in the general mercantile store of Benjamin Schaeffer, who is the postmaster.

The robbers first broke into Rogers' blacksmith shop and secured the necessary tools with which to effect their entrance to the store room, which was done by boring and sawing a panel out of the rear door. Once inside they proceeded to drill and blow open the safe, and their work on this piece of furniture demonstrated the fact that they are not novices at the business. The safe was completely rifled of all its valuable contents which amounted to the sum above stated. The rascals then made their escape without leaving the minutest trail behind. Every effort has been made to get on the track of them, but thus far without success. The police of Bellefonte and Lock Haven have been notified and are keeping a sharp lookout for suspicious characters.

The robbery is believed to have been committed by three men who yesterday were seen at Huston, Hublersburg, and in the evening, at Nittany Hall. They seem to have disappeared from the community without anyone knowing how or which way they went, although they were seen around there late last evening. Descriptions of the men have been sent all around, and are as follows:

No. 1. Is heavy set, about 5 feet 7 inches in height, red moustache, light hair, weight about 170 pounds, and was dressed in a dark suit.

No. 2. Was taller, fully 5 feet 9 inches, weight about 150 pounds, black suit, black moustache and hair, and wore a Fedora hat.

No. 3. Was of medium build—about 5 feet 7 inches in height, weighed about 140 or 150 pounds, brown coat, dark pants and winter cap. He had a little black moustache, and was considerably sunburnt. He also carried a package about 12 or 18 inches long and 6 inches wide.

The only part or piece of the money secured which might be identified was a five dollar gold piece.

ABOUT PENSIONS.

In the pension district in which this part of the state is included, of which Captain George W. Skinner is agent, with headquarters at Pittsburg, there are 46,248 United States Pensioners on the roll. Of the total number, 40,748 are paid by mail which requires a large force of clerks addressing letters and making out vouchers all the time. Those who call in person for their money number 5,500. All pensions are paid quarterly. Each quarter's roll is about $600,000, and the amount paid out is above $2,000,000 paid through the Pittsburg office every year.

MOUNTAIN FIRES RAGING.

On Sunday evening a bright reflection appeared in the northern sky and it was at first thought by some that Milesburg was on fire and burning down. This, fortunately, was not the case. The reflection was from forest fires on the Allegheny mountains this side of Snow Shoe where, it is said, they are raging. Considerable territory was burned over Sunday and Sunday night and much damage to the forests has been done. It is not known how the fire was started.

—It is not generally supposed that Mr. Hungarian is a good tumbler, but from the tumble one took on Monday evening, those who saw it were led to change their opinion. However, it was not a voluntary tumble. Mr. Hun. went to jump the Lemont train while it was in motion. He missed his hold and footing, was thrown against the train, and then hurled so violently that he tumbled three or four somersaults before he lit. In the future when that Hun wants to board a train he will do it when it is standing still.

—If the voters of Bellefonte borough wish to preserve the life of their high constable they had better keep him away from council meetings. Mr. Berger, at times, becomes entirely too obstreperous for his position and some evening he might take a tumble from one of the windows head foremost. Every man should have judgment enough to know his place and keep it, especially after being told a half dozen times, but Mr. Berger seems to lack considerable of that most important composition in his mental makeup.

—On Monday noon, while the children were going home from school several of the boys got into a fight. From fists they began to throw stones and a stone thrown by Lester McClellan hit Tommy McGarvey on the back of the head cutting quite a large gash, and almost knocking the boy senseless. He was helped home and his injury given proper attention. This should be a lesson to all boys not to throw stones. It is dangerous work and might result in the death of a playmate. So, don't do it, boys.

—Monday night Messrs. James Harris and Charles R. Kurtz took advantage of the presence in Bellefonte of the Italian orchestra to get up an impromptu dance, which was held in Bush's Arcade. All in all about forty or fifty young people were present and they all report having had a very pleasant time. Gen. D. H. Hastings was among the number present and enjoyed, with the youngest of them, a turn or more on the floor.

PERSONAL PENCIANGS.

Gen. James A. Beaver departed on the 8.45 train Monday evening on a business trip to Philadelphia.

Miss Burrows, of Williamsport, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Crider, on Linn street.

Architect Robert Cole and Harry M. Frysinger were two Bellefonters who spent Saturday in Lock Haven.

Mrs. George Moyer, of Coburn, died Monday forenoon of heart failure. She was aged about 63 years.

Mrs. Robert Gillmore and Miss Annie Pearl, two of Bellefonte's milliner's and dressemakers, returned from New York and Philadelphia on Wednesday evening.

Dr. Thomas R. Hayes and wife returned on Saturday from their winter's sojourn in California, and are now again domiciled in their residence on North Allegheny street.

Miss Victorine Lyon is home from Philadelphia and will spend the summer season in Bellefonte. Her many friends will be glad to have her among them once again.

Miss Winifred Meek came home from New York last Saturday to spend her Easter vacation. She is in New York attending the Conservatory of music in that place.

Ex-Sheriff Thomas J. Dunkle and family departed on Monday evening for Punxsutawney where they intend making their future home. Mr. Dunkle, it is said, has engaged in the insurance business in that place.

Mr. F. W. Crider returned on Saturday evening from a trip through several of the southern states. He comes home more firmly impressed with the idea that there is no place like Pennsylvania in which to live.

Miss Ruth Triple, Molly Crotty and Miss Blanche Johnson, all pleasant young ladies of Bellefonte, arrived in this city this morning. The young ladies made a short visit among their many friends, after which they returned home over the Central road this evening.—L. H. Democrat of Thursday.

Mr. W. T. Bair, editor and proprietor of the Philipsburg daily and weekly Journal, transacted business in Bellefonte on Tuesday, and by a little extra rushing, found time to make this office a brief call. We are always glad to see Mr. Bair and trust he will favor us whenever in the county seat.

On Tuesday evening at 7.30 o'clock, at the residence of the bride's parents on Howard street, Mr. J. A. Finkbinder, of this place, and Miss Carrie Mechtley, daughter of Mr and Mrs. Daniel Mechtley, were united in marriage by Rev. Zehner, of the Evangelical church. The young people have our heartiest congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Harbaugh were arrivals in Bellefonte on Wednesday evening. It will be remembered that early in 1892 Mr. and Mrs. Harbaugh left Bellefonte, she going to Lancaster and Mr. Harbaugh going to California, where he has been ever since. We have not learned whether they will again settle down to life in Bellefonte or not.

Mr. A. J Thompson, of Stormstown, the biggest man, literally, in this section of the state, will be in town today, the guest of his son, Professor A. C. Thompson. The gigantic Halfmooner weighs, when he is feeling well, 375 pounds, but he is off his feed just now and only weighs 347. He will spend Sunday with his son, Dr. Thompson, at Munson.—Saturday's Philipsburg Ledger.

T. Lee Rynder, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. Rynder who at one time lived in Milesburg but now of 215 Sassafras street Erie, Pa., has just been awarded the engraved silver medal (the trigonometry prize—the highest given) in the New York City High School. The public presentation took place on Friday night, March 30th, at the graduation exercises in Carnegie Music Hall. Naturally Mr. and Mrs. Rynder appreciate their son's honor, and the county of Centre always feels proud of the success of her boys.

J. M. Dale, the law partner of Ex-Governor Beaver, of Centre county, who is a member of the Union League, was in the city last night enjoying the company of some Republican friends. "I am so partial to Philadelphia," said he, "that I think it may become necessary, either to bring the city up to our county, or else take Centre county down here to stay for a few years." "Jack" Dale, as he is familiarly called among his associates, is known as the "Matt" Carpenter of Centre county.—Philadelphia Press.

FIFTY YEARS MARRIED.

And How the Anniversary Was Celebrated by Rev. George Warren and Wife.

Fifty years ago, or on the second day of April, 1844, Rev. George Warren, of Milesburg, and the present Mrs. Warren took the solemn vows which made them man and wife "until death do ye part," and, as the anniversary of this important event drew nigh the Methodist people of the Milesburg church conceived the idea that it would be a good thing to show their appreciation and love for their pastor by assisting in the celebration of this Golden wedding.

With them to conceive was to plan, and and to plan was to execute, and the result was that on Monday evening the Methodist church was crowded as it was crowded seldom in the past with those anxious to show their admiration for their pastor by participation in the important ceremonies of the occasion. In the front of the church sat the pastor and his family surrounded by the official church board and others who were instrumental in getting up the festivities of the evening. There were a few appropriate addresses by different gentlemen, to which Rev. Warren responded feelingly and happily. At the conclusion of the speech making part of the program refreshments were served. The good pastor and his family were seated around a table spread near the altar and all the others present were served at tables set all over the church. It was a happy feast—probably more of a genuine, real love-feast than had ever been partaken of in that church. The occasion was one which will never be forgotten by Rev. Warren, or any member of his family, or by any of those present. The reverend gentleman and his good wife were also the recipients of many useful as well as valuable present.

—Sometime ago a notice appeared in this paper about the intention of the State to locate a new hatchery for trout fry. At the same time we mentioned the fact that Philipsburg had put in a claim for the same to be put in that neighborhood. Our sister borough's claim was recognized as a few days ago the State Fish Commission decided to locate the hatchery on Cold Steam. Bellefonte might have secured this for some of the surrounding fresh water streams, if she had been up and doing, but the opportunity is now past.
